Fang yuan stole the methodology of central continent gu masters which allowed them to destroy 88 true yang building which is giant sun's plan to extort the inheritances of other people and making them to get supplied for his own bloodline and thus making his bloodline stronger + increasing his influence too.

Fang yuan's main goal for now is to abduct master tai bai yun sheng who has the ability to restore dan hun mountain in hu immortal blessed land(which is in the hands of fang yuan now)

Fang yuan's preplanning

>Manipulated the creator of the 88 building to become his benefactor and gaining intel about the building from him (but he didn't gave every detail about it cuz just now they become benefactors)
>Prepared many gu in advance to cope with most kinds of situations he have to endure in the future based on possibilities.

Fang yuan before this arc have joined hei tribe and made them advance to the building with his disguise while the others fight among themselves for inheritance which made hei tribe leader to do a plan of making everyone in the blessed land to fight through the inner towers so they can be canon fodder and hei tribe can get benefits like a vulture , this is also fang yuan's intention

Fang yuan with his knowledge have found that this di qiu inheritance(Which is connected to a rank 7 who has very high level knowledge about the 88 building)

have to deduce these things

"light in the soil= Have to impart light path gu worms in a specific formation shine up to a hundred thousand feet high= Need to control the flow of a dark lighting aura swimming in the sky for a hundred li= need to make special bats to go to the place which is a snow cave praising plum fragrant snow =

Specifications of the snow cave

With these 4 fang yuan have found that the mysterious inheritance owner is a refinement path gu immortal(rank 6-8) cuz these methods were connected to refinement path at it's core.

Fang yuan also have to attain this inheritance without anyone seeing it before him and also interfering with him thus he needs to stealthy as possible.

Fang yuan after that found it's a rank 7 structure inside the inheritance which has inkmen language text after that fang yuan get some information references from his blessed land and learnt that language and he read it to find that it's indeed the creation of fairy mo yao(a inkwoman rank 7)

Her plan

>To find a successor to save her lover
>Said gu to be refined is calamity beckoning gu which is a gu which attracts bad things to ourselves while allowing good things to the person we wanted basically misdirecting bad luck

Thing is (spoilers)

Mo yao's lover is a pawn of spectral soul to be ascended to a rank 9 but heaven's will(Star constellation) came at the perfect moment as a coincidence and she made his ascension to get failure also making to get to a near death state.

Since spectral soul knew this already his plan to make his pawn to fall in love with a love gu user(rank 9) so he'll escape from death even after he almost got died in the process.

And her current planning to make fang yuan as her successor to save her weakened lover is also the plan of spectral soul but her opponent is fang yuan 🗿

TO deceive people she had taken a form of an ordinary will which is a fake and since the common logic of will is "a component of the mind which only acts in a said way and won't act like a person with differential thinking methodologies"

basically if someone created a will with the intent of anger then the will only shows it's anger and another thing is if someone made a will after their death the common logic is that they created that will to fulfil their plans and the will is only fixated on that but not to any plan or deception around it

Fang yuan started to refine the gu house (combination of multiple gu) which are like 1000+ at the same time to create a part of the gu house
(This is a secret test by mo yao to get a suitable successor)

Her abilities:

> Can go through your memories to a very small extent and also can read your present thoughts while inside your mind(She concealed this ability for now)
> Can affect the arrangements of your thought process to make you feel different and think different thus misdirecting you from everything.(She concealed this ability for now)

When fang yuan mentioned spring autumn cicada in his mind , she shows up in his mind(huge mistake from her side which results in fang yuan's peak deduction feat)

Her strategy: To conceal the two abilities I've mentioned before she did a strategy of only asking questions about fang yuan's thoughts which were done from the present time where she entered his mind.

Fang yuan's strategy:

To not make her to read all of his thoughts fang yuan did this

>Used a gu which allowed him to conceal 50% of one specific thought of his.

but the complexity is if he spammed this gu while thinking she'll easily find out

>Thinking too much randomly and mixing his real thoughts with some random thoughts and thinking about many things at the same time to make her confused about what he is thinking for real

>Have to create a strategy from the fewer amount of thoughts which he created from his concealed thoughts about dealing with her in the future and also have to pre plan everything for the future perfectly so he won't make any mistakes while acting out his plans in his future which won't allow his mind to waver out that's a huge advantage for her to read his mind even more further.

Also at the start to conceal himself bro did fought her will secretly with normal methods inside her mind to see whether she can read them all but it's her planning to see about fang yuan's abilities and never complainted about it cuz she's invincible to his attacks

And what fang yuan did is he assisted to help her and only during this process she revealed that he's attacking her with 19 methods for 28 times to make him stop trying as an advice which also proves fang yuan's guess of her being a cautious person and he finds that she has attainments in wisdom path too cuz she can point out his mistakes in thinking and also in other things…

Fang yuan then revealed the method of central continent mfrs to deal with 88 true yang building's inner floors to control them there is a thing called glass owner token which can be used to be a game master of one particular floor and can control the entities in between them.

Her plan for now:

To deceive fang yuan to create water pavilion house and to give it to her house because she regret stealing it from them(which is indeed a fake plan and it's usage in her opinion is still saving her lover) but even if a other person with high knowledge in these situation came up they'll think this is a will created by her dying regret instead of her inside plan.

Also she repels the possibility of a wisdom path gu master getting the inheritance by imparting refinement path only understand trap and it's hard to find a wisdom + refinement path master so she's safe for now.

And her another plan is to make her successor utilize the loopholes she found from the 88 building and make her successor to reap the rewards (after that she can plunder them)

Also fang yuan get caught in her honey trap which is the formula for 6 armed heavenly king that makes a person to temporarily zombified to get 100x more strength and more affinity in strength path.

6 armed heavenly king plan:

>Mo yao gave this killer move to him just for (wait for spoilers!!)
>Mo yao gave this killer move to him to make his strength path cultivation to get higher
>Fang yuan made others to farm for him in a crossfire plan
>Fang yuan orders the clans in his alliance (Cheng,Ma) to gave him war captives so he can experiment the zombie formula on them
>After analysing the results on the captives fang yuan and mo yao found mistakes in the killer move and the war captives is just experimenting on lab rats.
>Fang yuan also have to conceal this info from other clans because it's too much demonic tbh
>Fang yuan after that refined a prototype of the killer move and did a plan to check this on high ranked guinea pigs

1. He used central continent formula to gain control over a floor stage where two high ranked fodder exists.
2. And to make them get this killer move fang yuan added this killer move as a reward for the said round.
3. They also took that killer move that made them zombies and then fang yuan made them to fight in different situations until death cuz he wanted to knew the extent of this killer move

In this process he also did understood and pushed mo yao in his mind to a corner that she have to assist in his demonic experiments thus finding out "Why this nigga who's supposed to be righteous doesn't stops me that much from experimenting on human beings??"

And mo yao said to understand the true extent of this killer move you have to use a rank 5 gu master who's completely willing to get them experimented

Also when this things were happening luck boy got married to a cheng clan tribe princess(this is important)

Phantom bear arc:

This is the arc where they need to fight a mountain sized bear to get through the next stage and hei lou lan managed to get a large amount of people to fight through this situation so they'll share the resources later

And since fang yuan showed his ability not to work without a specific benefit they need to persuade him with the rule of fang yuan gets 50% of the gains , fang yuan actually pushed them in this situation in a political wise

Also the bear has one final ability and that ability is to pull someone in a unique space that no one can enter except the bear and the selected person and it won't open again until any one of them dies and the bear spams this technique to get healed in the battle space and also killing gu masters one by one and what fang yuan did is advising hei lou lan a plan

the plan:

attack the bear with all might

if it uses space battle gu they have to intentionally send a warrior to get caught who need to suicide during the activation of the gu thus making the gu unusable also since the gu has a timeout ability spamming this strategy would make the bear to get completely exhausted and they can kill it too

after getting killed the bear changes into a gu which has the ability to summon that bear for our own fights, thus seeing that gu mo yao persuaded fang yuan to get that gu which is both his and mo yao's plan and he did persuaded hei lou lan to get that immortal gu for himself(Which is a trap made by hei lou lan for fang yuan)

After that you remember fang yuan using chang tribe to get prisoners for him to experiment?? This makes other people to get anger on chang tribe for a reason but they also got intel of chang tribesmen getting lost and killed brutally in mysterious ways in their places so every other clan other than chang thought it's the work of another clan taking revenge on chang clan for fang yuan's crimes and they didn't started their initiative to supress the chang clan(good deception feat)

And for fang yuan's appearance fang yuan made his wolves to randomly wander around in battle stages so people thought that he's fighting on floors but the shit happened is different as it was fang yuan's plan.

Fang yuan from the start of the vol 3 impersonates a old era warrior called chang shan yin thus gaining chang clan's trust also he called his son (son of his disguise) and showing him affectionate gestures(since he lost his father at a very young age bro became emotional and respects fang yuan and even cried to him(to a disguise lmao)

Fang yuan did trapped him to get special gu which makes him rank 5 and also poured the essence from blood skull gu to increase his aptitude (this proves that the one who killed the chang clan members is fang yuan himself and the story of them getting killed for revenge is a fake story).

With this fang yuan made him rank 5 and presented him the heavenly zombie king recipe as gift to him(trap) to make him as a zombie and fang yuan starts experimenting on his son(son of his disguise)

And when this experiments were ended he killed him Infront to mo yao to see her capabilities and whether to see why she suggested this killer move for fang yuan.

Mo yao entering his mind -- > Fang yuan decided that he shouldn't emerge more thoughts of him being suspicious of her and used space thought gu only to make small and few thoughts a day which were important --> She giving him some inheritance recipes and also guiding him to gain some inheritances by his own but she purposely make him see higher ranked inheritances which were not taken by a rank 5 gu master like fang yuan --> Fang yuan noticing many gu and inheritances and other things mainly the rank 9 wisdom gu and decided to save it for later --> Mo yao deceiving him to get heavenly king(zombie) formation as trap to make him stronger but it's a trap to make him use SAC cuz zombie body can't cultivate--> Fang yuan really got decieved in this trap but to know about giant sun's will he bought and studied wisdom path which is also a double counter for mo yao too but mo yao can't still subdue fang yuan cuz her abilities were still hidden by her --> Fang yuan understanding that this will is a hypocrite that it didn't give a shit to his evil actions also checking the capabilities of the zombie king --> It's slightly different from what mo yao suggested for fang yuan thus fang yuan finding that her plan is to make him as a zombie but still accepted the killer move cuz it's his future plan. --> Fang yuan after then understanding that she made him go to 88 building again even though he completed his goal to make him killed by giant sun to use SAC --> Her giving him advises at cruicial times making his awareness to drop that allows her to gaslight him more --> fang yuan found this by noticing the sudden changes in his thought process which were different than usual --> When fang yuan have to fight a guy with high luck she did made his fighting spirit to increase that he'll get bad luck as a result which can cause death so he can use SAC --> Mo yao making him understand his past lives and about his lover to lower his guard →

*Fang yuan getting sus of the situation cuz why he gets reminded him of his important past memories at this moment and he did found that she has the ability to view his past and make him to understand fake emotions to distrupt his mindset.--> Fang yuan did checked her to see her reaction for a final moment , when a gu stealing hand attacked fang yuan she sacrified her gu not to make that hand to steal SAC which is inside fang yuan's body that makes fang yuan to suspect why tf she's helping him too much for no reason and thus finding that she've found that SAC inside his body and forcing him out for activation --> And after that incident in every thought process of fang yuan she spammed the thoughts of spring autumn cicada everytime thus making attempt of lowering his confidence and make him to use SAC but fang yuan did realised this because of his high self awareness --> He did a strategy to beat her influence
1. After she lent her gu to the gu stealing hand instead of SAC her gu formation crumbled but fang yuan can forcibly fight her because of her being rank 7 will and fan gyuan being rank 5 so fang yuan became rank 6 and pressured himself to get attacked by giant sun's will on purpose and asking her to help him thus he borrowed most of her gu and kept it inside his rank 6 aperture which is his world so even if she tried to beat him she can't take the gu again without fang yuan's permission--> If you asked why she let fang yuan to become rank 6 because it's the reason that the higher the rank the longer SAC can go his past and that's why she allowed him to become rank 6 which bro used that opportunity to get her gu --> Her next plan after making him rank 6 is to push him to despair and hopelessness cuz even though she has his mind only if fang yuan willed SAC won't work --> After that she manipulated fang yuan to get into a situation where he have to get ganged by like the whole country of gu masters + giant sun so he has no chance to use SAC.

From this situation shit becomes even more complex because of bro getting negative luck from nowhere and also he did all these while fighting giant Sun will + 1000+ people while also outsmarting the bitch in his mind. Also there are calamities in the battlefield like formless hands which can steal any gu they touch and also other calamities.

To counter it bro did

Among the ones who tried to gang him he placed an imposter who's also fang yuan's ally who acted perfectly as fighting fang yuan and chosen by giant sun's will to get his special gu thus plundering giant sun's gu with his imposter(it's also the imposter's plan to get more amount of gu from giant sun cuz normal methods won't give her more gu)--> And he did yapped everything to mo yao inside his mind (This is basically a manipulation attempt to make her understand that nigga i knew everything about you just be real in our talk and lower her defenses and to remove her verbal deception)--> After that when she tried to attack him bro went near rank 9 wisdom gu which helped him to refine a secret gu (Other gu masters won't go near fang yuan cuz unless you are a zombie standing near the light of rank 9 gu would suck out your whole lifespan and insta kill you (that's why fang yuan became a zombie at the first place) and he kept wisdom path gu in his mind so she can't fight him directly no more and since her gu is in fang yuan's aperture she's dumbfolded and can't do anything than talking for real --> She talked real that she made this trap to get people who were from her sect and if her inheritance is added to the part of overall inheritances she can manipulate the inheritor to further manipulate her own sect cuz she was the past leader of the sect (fang yuan's persuation worked perfectly)-->After that she revealed that she only needs to touch the river of time with SAC and she can teleport to red lotus true inheritance which is hidden inside river of time giving new info to fang yuan(this reference is used in vol 5 🗿)-->After that what bro did he used an immortal gu which is created under that light of rank wisdom gu revealing that it's his entire plan to get near this gu and with a zombie body he can go near the gu without dying and also refine this special gu which allowed him to make 1000+ fighting clones(clone jutsu)at the same time

And after that giant Sun trapped him to leave the range of wisdom gu and he also offered the chance for fang yuan to get redemption and also giant Sun asks him to decide within 10 seconds as he counted 10 to one (within the 10 seconds fang yuan and mo yao will have ultra speed conversation in their mind and he persuaded her to explain about her planning of Gaslighting fang yuan.)

But fang yuan already made that imposter as the crucial pawn of giant Sun hence betraying giant Sun thus stopping his schemes to beat fang yuan also since it gives him a feel that his own descendants tried to betray him bro said "no inheritances for anyone and blasted himself that makes the inheritance to blow up " while fang bro used this moment to lure wisdom gu in his land
