Episode 1

Louis asked William about what was concerning him . Louis takes the paper William offered and reads that a beloved painting of Baron Cubit stationed in Bath has been vandalised and the culprit is unknown. Louis asked William if the artist's nobility interests him. William refused saying the painting reminded him of one he has seen before in the slums as images of the past flash his mind. Albert offered William the possibility to investigate it. William thanked Albert. William arrived at the place the defaced painting was displayed and uttered that the artist he saw before is definitely responsible for this. William looked at the painting with interest. William noticed that one of the cuffs of a delivery boy named Luke is shorter.

William along with Louis went to a bath to relax despite the case concerning him ,and remembered that the last time they bathed together was the time with Lord Rockwell. Louis asked what should they do next to which William said he wants to meet the painter. Louis said that he would send a message to Stanley ,William responded that the painter was Stanley.

William met with Watson and Sherlock. Sherlock asked William why he came to Bath,William responded just to sight see but Sherlock is on business isn't he. Sherlock recounted how an art dealer named John Paul Murray wanted Sherlock's help for the vandalism case on behalf of Baron Cubit,and paid them 300 pounds. Watson told Sherlock that it's time for their meeting with Baron Cubit. William decided to join Sherlock in the meeting.

Baron Cubit greeted Sherlock and Watson asking who these gentlemen were. Sherlock informed Baron Cubit of the men. William greeted Baron Cubit and shook his hands. Watson asked the price of Baron Cubit's painting,Baron reasoned they reach up to 500. Sherlock asked if the reason could be jealousy relating to the money made,Baron refused saying he sends all he makes to charity. William asked to see the atelier. Cubit brought them to a place in the middle of the forest. William noticed white lilies. Sherlock noticed that a pigment contains lead to which Baron responded that it's best for lilies. Sherlock noticed the sketch book and degradation of painting quality and lashing out due to which. William watched it from his shoulder. Baron explained that they were failings caused by a loss of calm due to the incident which he was embarrassed by. They rode on a carriage back. Watson asked Sherlock for any observation. Sherlock explained the vandal is short and left handed due to the most defilement being on the lower half and fine lines on the paint caused by a sleeve rubbing against the paint. Sherlock asked William why he shook Cubit's hand. William said that he just followed etiquette. Sherlock said that it looked like William was checking for callouses and pigments to check if the man was a painter and William knows more than what he's letting on. William said Sherlock thinks too highly but Sherlock is definitely concealing something. Sherlock pulled a piece of paper with a series of numbers containing the same paint the culprit used. William intently observed it. William and Louis departed Sherlock and Watson's company. Louis told William on the way back that Cubit isn't Stanley. William confirmed and asked for a favour.

A letter arrived for Cubit prompting him to go to his Artelier. Cubit asked how you know Stanley. Luke asked Cubit what he was doing here to which Stanely said he could ask the same. Luke brought a letter from "Stanley's friend" asking to meet him in his atelier. Cubit asked if the boy knew Stanley. Luke recounted that he loved his painting so he took it as often as he could and one day noticed someone leaving his house and after following the man arrived at the atelier and thus met Stanley. Luke said that due to you no longer needing Stanley you got rid of him. William grabbed Luke who was going to attack Stanley saying he should stain his hands and pulled his sleeve saying they are stained already. William explained that he sent those letters. William explained Stanley's death wasn't caused by Cubit. Sherlock confirmed this and explained Stanley's death was an illness. Cubit confirmed it was due to lead poisoning caused by his painting colours. Luke said that so they were truly friends. Cubit confirmed he was the stable hand at his house and one day after noticing one of his paintings was brought together however Stanley never sold the painting prompting Stanley to have them be painted in Cubit's name and asked for him to use the funds to help the poor. Luke said the numbers still don't add up. Sherlock explained that it was the inconsistency between charity donation and earnings from paintings and Luke noticed this disparity by peeking into the letters . Luke recounted that he noticed a donation check which prompted him to ask the sale price. Sherlock said that the art dealer Murray is behind this and other dark dealings. Luke was about to run but was stopped by Cubit who asked him to step off the path of vengeance.

Murray was bound by the policemen but said it was just a mistake. Albert said he is going to take him in on suspicion of reason,Murray used his position as an art dealer to deal weapons to hostile nations. Sherlock waked William how remembers Stanley to which William remembered his encounter with Stanley.

I AM GOING TO ASCRIBE THINGS WHICH CAN BE INTERPRETED EVERYONE'S FEAT TO WJM AS HE IS THE TACTICIAN BEHIND THEM AND SHOULD BE ABLE TO PERFORM WHATEVER ALBERT CAN OR HAD TOLD THEM TO ACT SO IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS

Albert announced that it has been clear for some time now that this day has to come and the Moriarty family face an unprecedented crisis . Bond questioning said tea party. Albert explained that tea parties are held by each household on a revolving basis and he had successfully avoided it but could no longer due to The Earl of Rockwell. William said they only have till this Sunday to prepare so what are the obstacles. Albert explained noble ladies have tried to sidle up to Will under pretence of seeing the rose garden,the difficulty of the tense situation is more increased due to the large mass and then there is the operation room and items which must be concealed. Jack explained that they will have more than a hundred guests so they must get external help. William asked Louis to oversee the external help explaining he needs his utmost trusted person to handle this. Albert told Fred, to reach out to Herder.

Jack said that let's review the roles after Albert concludes his remark : he will help the guests as the dine in the main venture,Louis will oversee the external help,Albert and William will assist each other as needed,Moran will be bodyguard to William and Albert,Fred will entertain anyone who enters the rise guarded,Bond will be there for emergencies,Herder will handle the basement.
Herder was working on the puzzle rings William gave him.
The ladies ran hurriedly towards the estate. Albert said that they are honoured for their presence here,as you enter the ground ,sign in to reception and no need to run. The ladies were stunned at their charm. Albert spieled that only due to The Earl of Rockwell this situation arose since they are a bashful bunch and they are nervous standing here. Albert continued that they would be glad if the opportunity the visit the rose guarded was availed and their gardener has been hard at work,the roses have risen to welcome them . Albert gave a toast to a splendid day. The ladies gathered around Albert and William. Albert morosely said that with each of you talking over each other he can't understand or give the deserved attention and he was under the impression that tea parties were an elegant way to talk and tell secrets. Albert touched one of the ladies chins saying wouldn't that be nice. The ladies were calmed down by this and also charmed. A pair of ladies asked if he would join them,Moran refused saying he can't leave his post. A lady asked which roses are these. Fred explained they are a type of Bourbon rose called Bourdanesh. The lady asked if Fred was the one to grow it. Fred confirmed saying yes and he's glad they love them. The ladies gathered around him saying how cute and due to this one of them caused a rose to fall prompting Fred to come over and bandage her with his tie and upon being told to see the roses said that the roses are there to embellish your beauty.

Louis was told by an external help that he broke a teapot,Louis said to not worry about it and about whom was this brewed,the help said it was for William to which Louis said let's brew another then. Louis brewed a cup and told the help to deliver it. Everyone was charmed by Louis' behaviour. A lady prompted another one to go with her to William's study . A lady in red collided with that lady. Someone entered the basement which Herder heard . William told to keep this in mind and you won't be troubled prompting a lady to be thankful. Another lady explained that there is a man she is in love with but doesn't know how to respond . William requested to know more about this person. The lady explained that this man is a mathematician and the young brother of an earl . The lady continued her heart aches whenever she hears about him and the doctor said only William James Moriarty can fix this while grinding him. William managed a stone face expression despite Moran and everyone abandoning him. Moran noticed an intruder in William's room and conveyed that to Bond. The prompting lady was in William's room with her friend and noticed picture books of the young Moriarty brothers . The prompting lady also noticed William's walking stick which when pulled apart opened to roses prompting another to say it looks like a magic wand. Bond said how naughty a kitten they are to wander there and said to let's to back to the party, charming them. William explained to Moran that he anticipated someone would sneak into his room. Herder found a kitten . The red lady stumbled down and encountered Herder who held a kitten and gave it to the lady . The lady asked who he is. Herder explained that he is William's help for puzzling intellectual situations.

The ladies were leaving and Albert said that he is pleased to hear that they had fun charming them further. William said keeping Louis was a good decision.

Analysis

Episode 1

Moriarty's Conjecture

1. One sleeve of the post boy is shorter than the other
2. The painting was only majorly damaged near the bottom
3. The painting had marks suggesting it was rubbed by a sleeve
4. The artist he had met when young was Mr. Stanley
5. Cubit doesn't have the callouses an artist has
6. The art book has a deterioration of art
7. Lead is present in one of the colours
8. Cubit donated everything he got to a charity
9. There are sums on paper with one begin smaller and one larger with the smaller one being similar to the one Cubit thought he earned
10. The art dealer of Cubit possessed the money before
11. The art dealer gave Sherlock a large sum to investigate
12. Cubit didn't suggest a large desire for Sherlock and Watson

Conclusion: Cubit and Stanley were friends -> Luke (post boy) and Stanley were friends -> Cubit had been earning more than what he knew and the difference was taken by the art dealer and the art dealer likely dealt in darker dealing ->

Stanley had died due to lead poisoning -> Luke tried to find what had happened and learned about the discrepancy in earnings and donations -> Luke concluded that Stanley was killed and cheated by Cubit -> Luke defiled the paintings due to a feeling of vengeance

The following biases were overcome

1. Nobility and normal people weren't usually friends
2. People usually desired fame
3. Nobility were usually corrupt
4. A child being the defiler was a terrible truth
5. The desire for Stanley to be alright as Moriarty bought him a friend

Moriarty's Scheme

Moriarty told Albert to investigate the art dealer to get proof . Moriarty sent letters to Luke and Cubit inviting them to the atelier posing as Stanley's friend. Moriarty also sent a letter to Sherlock to bring him there. Moriarty anticipated Luke would reveal his belief of Cubit being the killer. Moriarty then would stop Luke and reveal that Luke died of lead poisoning. Moriarty anticipated Luke would object regarding the monetary discrepancy and had Sherlock there to reveal the truth of the art dealer being responsible (Sherlock revealing it was better due to his prestige as a detective). At the same time he had Cubit arrested and Albert came to bring charges of treason as soon as possible.

Episode 2

Moriarty's Scheme

Moriarty's scheme to protect the image worked in several ways :

1. Albert would give a speech appreciating Earl of Rockwell and deeming themselves shy to place any blame for any unfortunate situation on Rockwell and to appear humble;Albert was to give the speech to maintain the image of him being the most important brother and due to his natural social skills
2. Moran was placed as bodyguard near Albert and William to ensure he was monitored due to his bad attitude
3. Fred was placed in charge of the rose guarded due to his natural abilities but also since he could be used to give an image of cuteness (him being flustered if anyone praises the rose) further making the truth of him being an assassin unlikely;Fred was likely told to say to anyone who was hurt to a rose and/or caused rose to fallen that a rose was a decoration for their beauty and bandage them with his tie to further increase the image created

4. Louis was placed in charge of the external help as he could sympathise with them and thus ensure the maintenance of the image;this also served to protect Louis
5. Jack was placed in charge of the main dining area so that he could monitor the largest quantity of people and bring attention to or present any disaster;this also helped create the image of a loyal butler
6. Bond was placed in charge of handling emergency situations due to his adaptability and charisma
7. In case anyone went to their rooms fabricated pictures of the young brother was placed and the blade cane was replaced with one containing a rose (the cane being replaced by one containing a rose served to further make it hard for nobility to believe that it was bladed)
8. Herder was placed in charge of the underground spaces due to his great hearing which would help find anyone and even if an unfortunate situation happens with him the damage was lessened due to few knowing of his relation to the Moriarty's;Herder also had less moral quandaries about killing if it came to that
