Cornflower Blue - Other

Subaru, even at the beginning of the story had been experiencing death over and over again for "Ten or so days" and had adapted remarkably quickly to this given his very casual attitude of going out to attempt to save Emilia again. (Adversity Capacity:Mental Fortitude, Stress Tolerance and Perseverance + Adaptability: Cognitive and Environmental + EQ: Management)

From past experiences he wandered into a dark alley where he knew criminals were likely to target someone like him, another reason he wandered back there was because "the screams wouldn't reach the main road". (Foresight: Prediction + Field Skills: Trap Setting, Risk Calculation and Information Gathering + Intelligence: Spatial)

Has fought the three criminals 88 times, something he has apparently been keeping track of mentally ever since they first met. He even already considered himself a "veteran" in fighting with them specifically, which he proved by going on to quickly kill all three of them using a stick he had picked up a few minutes prior. (Adversity Capacity:Mental Fortitude, Stress Tolerance and Perseverance + Adaptability: Cognitive and Environmental + fSIQ: CPI + Foresight:Concrete Anticipation and Prediction + Field Skills: Information Gathering)

After fighting and supposedly killing all three criminals he goes on to break each of their necks "just in case", this is likely because his experience in fighting people, especially these three has made him more cautious. (Behavioural: Caution and Ruthlessness)

After witnessing the citizens of the capital's reaction to Emilia and Felt's "fight", he guessed that things like these were probably pretty regular here. (Sensory: Observation and Perception + Reasoning: Inductive + Thinking: Critical)

Guessed based on Elsa's appearance, sadistic tendencies and inclination towards blood and gore that she's likely a vampire. (Reasoning: Abductive)

During one of his attempts to defeat Elsa, he was able to alert some Capital guards to her location, in order to do this he would have had to have remembered Elsa's exact position during a specific period of time and accounted for the time it would take for the guards to get there. He was also slightly implied to have somehow done this anonymously and he positioned himself up in a ward which he knew would be a good place to oversee the fight. (Field Skills: Trap Setting and Information Gathering + Unpredictability: Creativity + Planning: Intricacies +

Strategy: Logistics + Deception: Concealment, Disguise and Information Control + Manipulation: Logical and Mass + Intelligence: Fluid and Spatial + Memory)

After this attempt fails he simply walks towards Elsa, fully prepared to die a painful death again for the sake of resetting the world and ending this "experiment". (Adversity Capacity:Mental Fortitude, Stress Tolerance and Perseverance)

After Elsa is defeated by Reinhard he changes tactics rapidly and saves her life by "misdirecting" the guards in the interest of keeping her alive because he thought she might be useful, and despite Elsa's sadistic personality he is able to convince her not to kill him rather easily and even managed to extract that she has a sister and she can heal her if they go over to the southeastern section of the slums, which pointed toward at least some level of trust. In order to accomplish this, Subaru used some holy coins he presumably found on Elsa to bribe the residents of the slums into interfering with the guards' search. (Deception: Misdirection, Concealment, Disguise and Information Control + Manipulation: Direct + Social Intelligence: Influence Building + EQ: Understanding and Facilitation + Intelligence: Fluid + Adaptability: Environmental + Field Skills: Information Gathering and Risk Calculation + Strategy: Flexibility)

Elsa was able to see that Subaru wants to kill her, instead of denying it he tells her that it's true and that he is still planning on killing her one day just "not now", he does this because he doesn't see any point in hiding it and because he's confident based on the past 88 times he's died to her that she won't kill him to quell any future anxieties. (EQ:Perception and Understanding + Field Skills: Risk Calculation)

Despite only recently learning Emilia's real name he had managed to figure out "ages ago" that "Satella" was just an alias, he'd also more or less figured out why she gave him a fake name purely based on her behaviour during their one and only interaction over two months ago. (Reasoning: Inductive + Thinking: Critical and Analytical + EQ: Understanding)

Had supposedly been operating with the Witches Cult for around two months, and during this time he'd gained a reputation for being "devout". Despite this reputation, he uses things like the gospel as leverage, an example of this being when Betelgeuse is accusing Subaru of being "slothful" to which he responds by claiming he's just following what the gospel is telling him to do. On top of this, he also internally expresses a high level of distaste for Betelgeuse, calling him a "madman" and "annoying" among other things. Despite this, he keeps his composure and acts

accordingly. (Adversity Capacity:Mental Fortitude, Stress Tolerance and Perseverance + Deception: Acting Skills + Manipulation: Logical, Individual and Mass + Social Intelligence: Awareness, Integration and Influence Building + EQ: Perception, Facilitation and Management)

He believes himself to not be a good enough actor to go out into civilization while hiding his connection to the Witches Cult, so he stays in their current HQ and learns all he can about this world. (Field Skills: Risk Calculation and Information Gathering + Intelligence: Crystallized + EQ: Realization + FSIQ: VCI and CPI)

Watched Betelgeuse brutally maim himself and despite finding it angering and disgusting he maintains a cool expression and speaks/acts normally. (Adversity Capacity:Mental Fortitude, Stress Tolerance and Perseverance + Deception: Acting Skills + EQ: Management)

Over the course of 3 days (400 deaths) he'd managed to enlist Meili's help in dispatching all of Betelgeuse's "fingers", his confidants/stockpile of bodies and mitigated the threat his Unseen Hand posed. On top of this he'd managed to discover (likely over the course of his 400 deaths worth of information gathering) that entering into a contract with a spirit negates Betelgeuse's ability to take over someone's body, allowing him to permanently kill him. All of this was in the interest of transferring credit of Betelgeuse's defeat to Emilia in order to help her gain popularity, a tactic that was so effective it even surprised Subaru. (Adversity Capacity:Mental Fortitude, Stress Tolerance and Perseverance + Planning:Process, Intricacies, Applicability and Coverage + Strategy: Logistics, Alignment, Fortitude, Flexibility, Complexity and Efficiency + Field Skills: Information Gathering and Multitasking + Manipulation: Direct, Indirect, Logical and Mass + Deception: Disguise and Information Control + Social Intelligence: Awareness and Leadership + Thinking: Critical, Analytical, Holistic, Non-Linear and Divergent + FSIQ: CPI)

After realizing that Meili is probably going to sicc her beast on him due to him "treating her like a kid" he quickly does his best to repair her mood, not wanting to go through another loop all over again. (Social Intelligence: Awareness and Cognition + Manipulation: Emotional + Deception: Acting Skills + EQ: Perception, Understanding, Facilitation and Management + Sensory: Observation and Perception)

Implied to have somehow manipulated Crusche into hunting the White Whale, resulting in her death and erasure. (Manipulation: Logical and Mass + Planning: Applicability + Strategy: Efficiency + Field Skills:Trap Setting)

- After the White Whales rampage he surveyed the battlefield, looking for "spoils" and managed to find and keep Felix captive, supposedly recognizing him from his endless research and knew that he was a good healer. (Intelligence: Crystallized and Fluid + Social Intelligence: Influence Building and Resource Management + Field Skills:Information Gathering)

Based on how everyone else in the kingdom forgot about and seemed to completely move on from Crusche's being erased from their memories, he was able to infer that when this happens to most people, their memories change and remake themselves in a way that doesn't feel too weird, but since Felix seemed to lose his mind Subaru supposed that if a person is a big enough part of another's life and they get erased then they likely fall apart like what was happening to Felix. (Reasoning: Deductive, Inductive and Abductive + Thinking: Critical and Analytical)

Learned about Regulus's lion heart ability and got in contact with his wives, managing to convince each and every one of them to burn down the mansion with all of them inside, killing all 53 of them and allowing Subaru, with Elsa's help, to kill him. (Intelligence: Crystallized + EQ: Understanding and Facilitation + Social Intelligence: Communication, Leadership and Resource Management + Manipulation: Direct, Emotional, Logical and Mass)

Managed to capitalize off Felix's broken memories and manipulated him into being a loyal servant, even to the point of aiding him in murdering Julius, his friend, and feeling little to no remorse about it due to Subaru making Felix entirely dependent on him. (Manipulation: Direct, Logical, Emotional and Individual + Manipulation Methods: Love Bombing, Gaslighting, Persuasion and Brainwashing + Psychological Warfare: Mind Control, Emotional Inducement and Reinforcements + Planning: Applicability + Strategy: Logistics, Alignment and Flexibility + Field Skills: Trap Setting + EQ: Understanding, Facilitation, Engagement and Management)

- After Julius's death it's revealed that Subaru had ordered the poisons and arranged the cleanup with the aid of a merchant.

Feels no attachment to the Witches Cult nor the Cardinals and thus he's watched them closely, looking for weaknesses and openings and constantly planning various potential ways to kill them, if the plan is fruitful he will execute it, likely in the same way he did Regulus. (Behavioural: Ruthlessness + Field Skills: Information Gathering + Sensory: Observation and Perception + Thinking: Analytical and Divergent)

After eliminating most of his opponents, whether they be knights or fellow Witch Cultists he finally set his sights on eliminating Reinhard, he utilized everyone and everything he had, this included manipulating/influencing

Witch Cultists, other Cardinals, Roswal, Elsa, Meili, and many others into helping him "defeat" Reinhard, with many of them knowing Reinhard's reputation and fighting anyways. Despite this impressive display he never once managed to kill Reinhard so he eventually elected to "kill who he is as a knight", he does this by not only setting the entire city of Luginica ablaze, but the entire country. (Social Intelligence: Communication, Leadership and Resource Management + Manipulation: Direct, Logical and Mass + Thinking: Analytical, Holistic, Divergent and Abstract + Planning: Process, Versatility, Intricacies, Applicability and Coverage + Strategy: Logistics, Alignment, Flexibility, Complexity and Efficiency + Unpredictability: Creativity)

- Note that Subaru had used the minor spirit he had gained in the first portion of this short story to burn down the Capital while he had Roswal burn down the rest of the country (Which also implies that Subaru manipulated Roswal so well that he believed Subaru over his gospel which was given to him by Echidna to assist him in achieving his most deeply desired goals). (Social Intelligence: Leadership and Charisma + Manipulation: Logical and Individual + Manipulation Methods: Persuasion + EQ: Facilitation)

The narrator states that Emilia has been given full credit for exterminating the entire Witches Cult, meaning Subaru had managed to fully wipe them out and push credit onto her. (Manipulation: Logical and Mass + Psychological Warfare: Reinforcements)

He had kept his tracksuit sealed, only to be worn when he reunites with Emilia, and when he "unexpectedly" meets up with Emilia he's wearing his jacket, meaning he anticipated meeting with her on that day and later states that his plan the whole time was for Emilia to kill him and not Reinhard, which is why Subaru went out of his way to destroy Reinhard's image. (Foresight: Field Envisioning and Prediction + Field Skills: Trap Setting)
