The smiling absence
Chapter 1

Gangla sauras is a 22 year old man. He's very smart. He mastered 500 languages and even invented a new one in just 2 hours. He was able to make 500 people crack each other without even moving a finger. He was different. There was no way we could've ever created such a work of art. He conquered Mars. He created 200 different cures for cancer. Gangla sauras also outsmarted 200 people at once in mahjong. Gangla sauras cleared the liar game (which is a secret organization) one-handedly. He also surpassed the leader years before the leader even became the leader. He survived the black room while being blindfolded. He read the entire internet backwards in four minutes and spotted three typos..He solved a Rubik's cube simply by staring at it until it got uncomfortable and changed color. He also watched one Wong Fei-hung movie and correctly predicted what was going to happen in the other 119 movies. When he was 5 years old, He was able to seduce napoleon and turn him into his SS (ifykyk). He threw a rock across a lake and skipped it so perfectly that it never stopped bouncing, eventually disappearing over the horizon. He mastered academics at the age of 5. He manipulated his entire kingdom. There was a person named Kira who was literally just writing names in a notebook and killing people. One meeting with Gangla and Kira wrote his own name in the notebook.. He was terrified. He had this disturbing look on his face.
