The Brokers

Heeters Family

Made By: Osbis

Introduction:

Heeters family is who acts as an intermediaries for planets frieza has conquered, to put it simply they are “Brokers” but secretly they is trying to overthrow frieza. Elec is the leader of this Family who takes control and command on things so this doc is mostly going to cover his Feats.

Elec Feats:

Let's start with the past 40 years ago:

Saiyans invaded Planet cereal but bardock (Goku's father) didn't kill a mother (muezli) and a kid (granola) since it remained him of his own wife and kid and there was namekian too (monaito).

After the invasion was over heeters were observing the scenario thinking of selling the planet to sugarians race.

Elec plan for Negotiations of the planet's:

- Price shouldn't be less than (100 billion pol)
- Use force if things don't work out.
- For the frieza army cut give them 1/10th of the price as most of the frieza army are battle hungry monsters and have no idea on how much the planet is worth.
- As long as they avoid being frieza radar they are safe as frieza is smart and insanely story. (Gas is strong enough to save them from frieza army so they don't have to worry about them)
- One day we will over reign frieza army not by might but wealth, wits, intel (of course if they try to fight frieza with raw strength frieza then they are basically dead. Frieza potential is also basically unmatched so trying to get stronger than frieza by training is not gonna work out at all)
- so they need to save up their fortune as much as they can.

Granola wakes up screaming saiyan in shock upon seeing Bardock. Monaito using his ability knocks granola out but it's too late as it catches the attention of heeters. Bardock immediately asks for the robe monaito, hiding his identity as he fakes trying to kill monaito, muezil, granola.

“Get on with it the” says elec.

Bardock tries to convince the heeters to spare them by mentioning monaito's unique power.

Upon hearing that elec immediately kills muzeli without hesitation. Telling Bardock to kill the kid and take the Namekian.

But Bardock, fueled by anger, throws a ki blast at heeters confusing Elec as why a frieza army would do this? but gas had already noticed his anger before the attack anticipating it so he puts an energy shield around them to block the attack.

Bardock immediately realising his mistakes he runs away as the dust created from the attack was still blocking heeters vision.

Elec figures bardock might have heard them talk about betraying frieza which would put them in trouble some position so he decides to too kill Bardock.

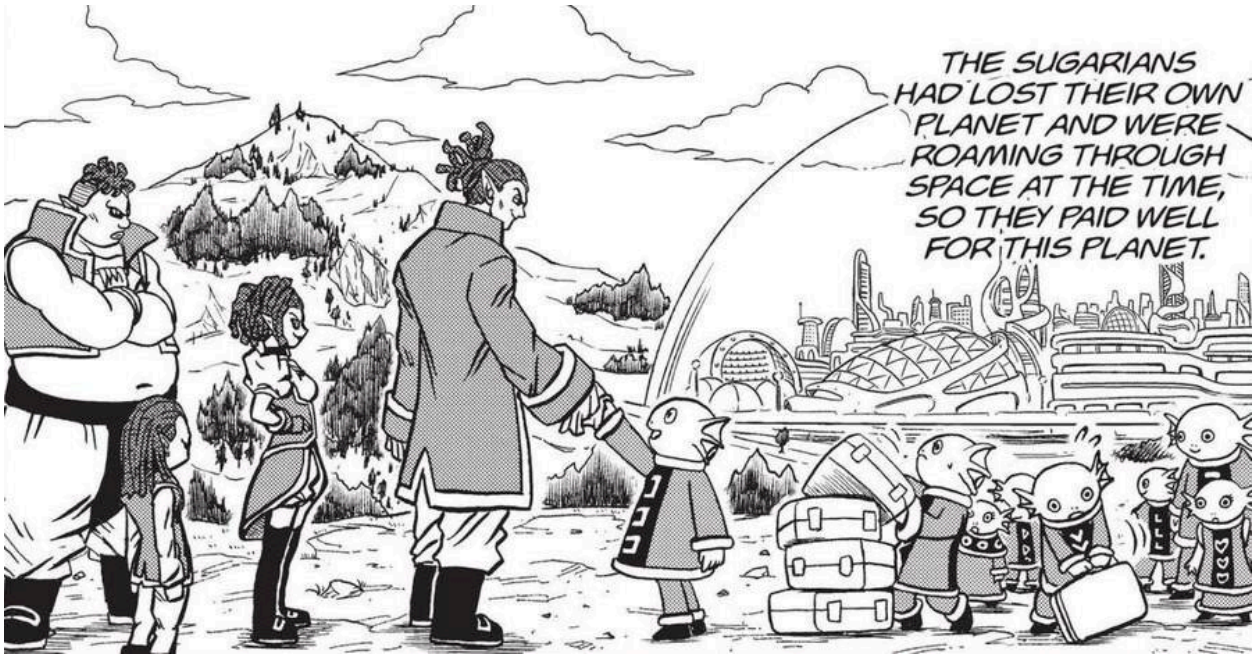

Very subtle psychological tactic from Elec to manipulate Gas. Since he seems to be a stress, Gas who has strong bond with Elec which is also one sided as Elec doesn't have that, Gas will try to prove his worth to Elec and impress him which Elec knows to so Gas asks Elec leave the work to kill bardock to him and Elec happily agrees saying to kill bardock quickly before frieza arrives and leaves the planet for meeting.

Elec is the weak so fighting bardock is a no no with a simple psychological tactics:

- He avoids fighting with Bardock by making Gas fight without Gas knowledge.
- He avoids revealing that he is the weakest among the gang, keeping the honour of his name and gang.
- He also strengthens his fake bond with Gas as Gas views Elec leaving the work to kill Bardock as a sign of trust from Elec.

[Direct Manipulation, Deception, Fluid Reasoning Index]

[Leadership, Social engineering]

Gas loses against Bardock and Bardock manages to escape and so didn't Monaito and Granola but Elec doesn't do anything about it since bardock attack them upon anger of them killing muzeli so clearly bardock doesn't condemn frieza works so it unlikely that a guy who hates frieza will warn frieza about his demise and about Monaito and Granola What are they gonna do? Aside from dying as others say, saiyans are not as good as bardock so going with bardock to planet vegeta to live there is just stupid. Their race is wiped out and now another race is living on their planet so they are complete strangers to this new society and to make it worse one is an old namkian and the other is just a kid so the chances of survival are insanely low and even if they survive they are no threat to heeters.

If Monaito tells Granola about Heeters Gang who are the one to actually kill his mother not the saiyans and goes on revenge he is dying in the path of revenge as he is not that strong so he is dying by the hands of Heeters just like his mother.

So the best option is to just live quietly which is what they did until granola becomes a bounty hunter making a name for himself and Elec notices it giving a visit to them.

[Inductive Reasoning]

As predicted Monaito hadn't told Granola about The heeters being the killer of his mother and they are barely surviving in the new society.

- Elec liked to keep it secret otherwise they would kill both of them.
- Elec seeing potential on Granola wants him to work for him offering money and getting them out of miserable life left with no choice they accept the deal.
- Elec then builds fake bonds with Granola to pressurize Gas even more to try harder to prove his worth as Gas had potential to beat frieza and it Keeps going on for over 40 years.

- Showing he is proud of Gas once in a while to keep Gas mental state in check.

[Indirect Manipulation, Direct Manipulation, Deception, Threats]

Planning Preparation:

Back to the Present time:

A crucial part of his plan to overthrow frieza is to get intel, in search for it he learns about OG 73-I who has immense data stored in him so Elec keeps tabs which intern's leads to him learning about saiyan survivors like goku, vegeta etc who have managed to gain strength beyond comprehension after the end of moro arc.

- He anticipates that goichi would retrieve OG 73-I the moment he knows he is alive for the data stored in OG 73-I.

- Goichi would try to make copies of those data to expand the powerhouse in his gang and as a backup.

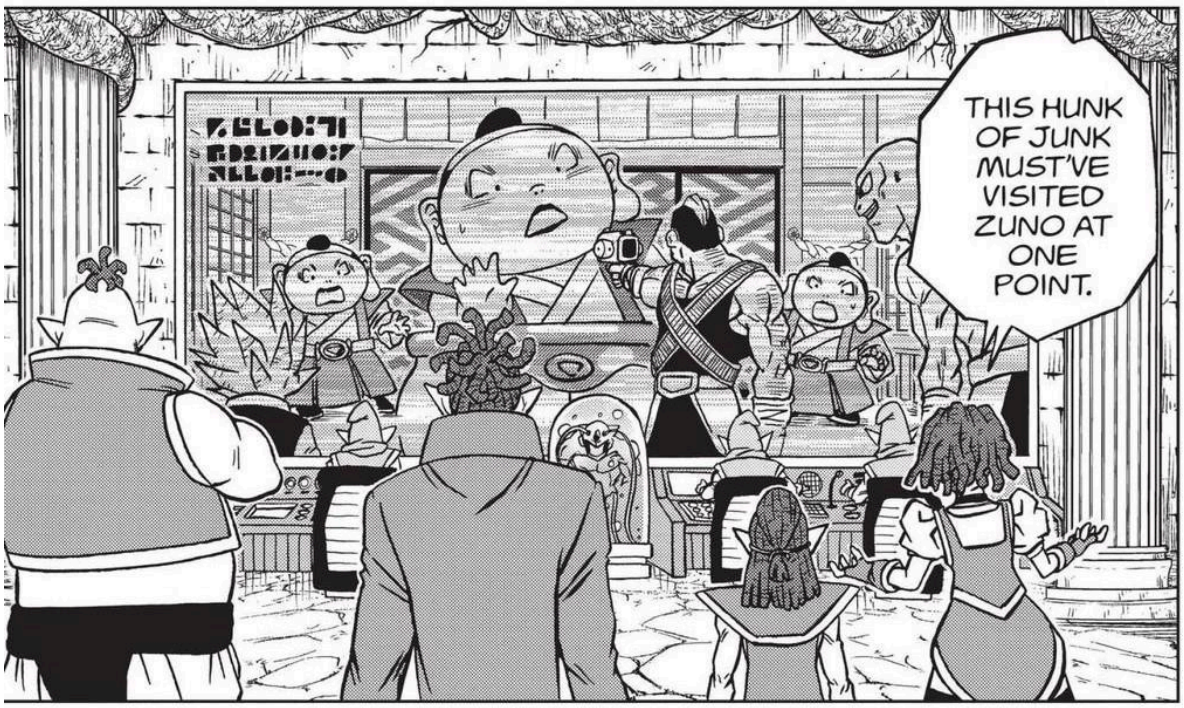

- So he waits for goichi to retrieve OG 73-I, completely avoiding galactic patrol.

- He sends granola to take down goichi and the copies of OG 73-I and steal the real OG 73-I which he manages to do getting his hands on OG 73-I while erasing duplicates to own all of the data to himself.

[Anticipation, Deductive Reasoning, Linear Thinking]

Background of OG 73-I:

OG 73-I is an android that was created on a planet with advanced science and technology along with other OG Soldiers, who all belonged to a man named Goichi, who desired to rule the universe. Somehow, Saganbo and his Galactic Bandit Brigade encountered OG 73-I and added him to their group. OG 73-I then rampaged throughout the universe with them until they were caught by the Galactic Patrol, Merus specifically, and imprisoned in the Galactic Prison. But one day Moro broke all of the prisoners out and ultimately he absorbed OG 73-I at the end. Moro got defeated so OG 73-I was unfused without anyone knowing. Heavily injured, his body was still in the crater made from Moro death. Elec was keeping tabs on him as he wanted the knowledge OG 73-I possessed.

- Macki (The girl) Quickly looks through the memories of OG 73-I where they find out OG 73-I visited Zuno at one point. [Fsiq]

Background of Zuno:

Zuno also known as Master Zuno is a mysterious character who knows virtually everything that has ever happened in the Multiverse.

- They also learns about the dragon balls that can grant wishes created my namekians
- Moro used it to recover his magical powers.
- With this Elec deduces that frieza who was dead used dragon balls to revive himself and strange unexplained events that took place in the universe was due to it.
- The galactic patrol was also waiting to ambush saganbo and his gang which Elec already anticipated.
- Now they have OG 73-I data they work on tracking zuno.

Background on Galactic patrol:

The Galactic Patrol also known as the Space Police, the Galaxy Police, and the GP is a cosmic police force that is led directly by the Galactic King and helps keep order throughout the Milky Way Galaxy. The Galactic Patrol also upholds a strict law forbidding the usage of time travel. However, there are many places in Universe 7 that falls outside of their jurisdiction.

10 Million years ago they were known as the Galactic Police (Galactic Watch).

- Granola learns about dragon ball via monaito so he collects it using it for a wish to become the strongest.
- He goes to Heeters gang for frieza location to get revenge as he tells them that he has now become the strongest in the universe.
- Elec asks Oil and Macki to fight granola to check and estimate Granola power.
- After seeing Granola's powers he asks Granola how he got that strong.
- Granola refuses to tell.
- Elec tells that if Granola fails this revenge they will also be in trouble so they need reassurance that He is gonna defeat frieza.
- Granola reveals that he used dragon balls.

- Something Elec thought of too.

- Elec tells him to go for now as they don't currently have frieza location.

If Granola defeats frieza he will overtake his position and considering frieza army were the one to wipe his race Granola will most likely kill frieza army too which hinders Heeters plans to rule over frieza army so Elec thinks of using Goku and vegeta to kill granola estimating that Goku and vegeta power from OG 73-I data who practically fought Goku and Vegeta and also there is the fact that Granola hates saiyans since he still think a saiyan killed his mother and wiped his race so making them fight with each other to a death battle would be possible.

[Info Gathering, Prediction, Linear Thinking / Reasoning]

Planning:

Zero:
Call frieza to have a meeting with them for business.

One:
Keeping Gas in check as now Granola has become the strongest Gas role in his family as a power house is undermined so Elec speaks with Gas who voices his desire to have fought with Granolah previously. Elec reassures Gas, telling him that he believes he could have beaten him but did not want to think about the worst case scenario. He tells him that he is the only member of the family who can surpass Frieza and that when the dust is cleared, the Heeters will be the supreme rulers of the universes

Two:
Ask Zuno for intel Goku and Vegeta, dragon ball etc:[They get 10 question]

Three:
(Goku and Vegeta are training on Beerus' planet so it's basically impossible for them to reach them.) Use their weakness to convince them to fight Granola (In this case they use chi chi and bulma to call goku posing themselves as good people proposing a job for goku and vegeta help to defeat a villain who ravaged their planet.)

Four:
Tell Goku and Vegeta the villain is the strongest in the universe (Saiyans by nature are race who seeks battle for excitement, if a good guy like goku and vegeta learns about bad guy who is also happens to be the strongest they will definitely fight him specially since goku and vegeta are already in top strongest mortals in the universe/multiverse so they would be even more intrigued to learn about this villain that is supposedly the strongest mortal in the universe.)

Five:
Steel dragon radar which they learned about from zuno to collect the dragon balls on cereal.

Six:
Give Goku and Vegeta good company as the journey from earth to cereal takes 18 days if they question how they could offer such luxury form a tribe whose planet got ravaged by the strongest being just tell them they are their saviour so its nothing.

Seven:
Call Granola tell him they found frieza location but their scouting team screwed up spreading word about his revenge and now frieza has sent 2 assassins to kill him.

Eight:
Tell him that the assassin's are saiyans making granola eager about the situation and to also kill them.

Nine:
After landing on the planet just tell them Granola location to avoid being seen by Granola on the fact that the heeters are the one who brought the assassin.

Ten:
Oil Observes the battle between Saiyans and Granola to make sure things are going according to plan, Macki collects dragon balls with the help of radar.

Eleven:
Seeing Granola fight himself to death and kill goku and vegeta on the process of thinking he is getting revenge monatio will most likely will reveal the truth to stop the fight and it will stop the fight which would put them in troublesome state so use dragon ball to make Gas the strongest in the universe as the cost of his life spans.

Twelve:
Don't tell Gas, Macki or Oil about Gas life span being used to make him the strongest since then Oil and Macki would not have followed through the plan. (Unlike Granola whose life is already taken in exchange for his life span the wish is made in a way where Gas only loses his life span if the situation demands him to be the strongest.

Thirteen:
Gas frustration towards granola will ultimately lead to his defeat so remove the seal of Gas power that Gas can't control.

Fourteen:
He will fight without senses at 1st but will remember his past since he is fighting Goku who just looks like bardock who defeated him. So he will remember his motivation, pride and everything managing to control his power at the end since he is the strongest after the wish.

Fifteen:
Kill the Saiyans, Granola and after frieza arrives there for so called business kill him too overtaking his army with no competition rule over the universe.

Manipulation of Gas:

Elec felt the power of Gas and the potential he hold as a fighter so he let Gas bullied and humiliated as he would take Gas in his business meetings with other criminals to form a trauma and would act as a guardian big brother in those moments posing himself as this saviour who is saving his poor little brother which intern made Gas view Elec someone very special to him, someone that helped him get through tough times which makes Gas return the favour to Elec that he never owed him to being with.

Elec had Granola work for him and praised and raised him to make Gas feel that he is fading in the background that he isn't doing enough favour for Elec as now Granola has stolen that role. Making the bond even deeper as now Gas has an obstacle.

Elec would trust Gas to do some of his work and praise him for the work from time to time to keep Gas mental health in check making sure Gas doesn't lose his motivation to serve Him by teasing him with little awards of appreciation towards Gas.

Elec big Goal to overthrow frieza opened an opportunity for Gas to get and gain it to full fill Elec wish repaying his debt properly as most of the works he did for Elec was small works and wasn't that Grand in scale, Giving a purpose to Gas as it was a Goal that he was trusted to achieve it.

In a desperate situation where Gas was losing to Goku and Vegeta, Elec confronts Gas straight head on making him feel like a pathetic little brother who can't even fulfill his Promise guilt tripping him fully knowing Gas would die. He powered up more and more:

WHAT DO YOU THINK YOU'RE DOING?
HEY. GAS.
OH?
TMP
E- ELEC...
...TO THE UNIVERSE'S GREATEST ORGANIZA- TION...
TO ELEVATE THE HEETERS...
ANSWER ME!
WHY DID I MAKE YOU INTO THE STRONGEST WARRIOR?

M-MUST KILL THE SAIYANS.
AND WHAT IS NEEDED TO ACHIEVE THAT?
CORRECT.
STAMPING OUT THE SAIYANS WAS ONLY A STEPPING STONE ALONG THE WAY.
WRONG! YOU HAVE TO KILL FREEZA.

THE POWER I GAVE YOU HAS TO BE WORTH MORE THAN THIS PATHETIC SHOWING!!
SO FIND THE RESOLVE TO DIE IN BATTLE IF YOU HAVE TO!
