Part 1

There is a university and a class blew up
One dead two injured

The bomb was a remote control bomb and was put under the desk

The victim is female victim name is anna
The victim is 21 years old a law student

She was in a psychology class it was more like a course optional subject course

The last time she has seen before the incident was in class this incident happened between class times

Police couldnt find anything

The role of the detective: jayce is from the  same class as her jayce major is literature so he is a book geek he wants to solve the case out of curiousity

Jayce first asked victims friends they didnt had any information rather then she broked up with her boyfirend one week before the incident

Jayce went to talk the boyfirend said that he didnt cared about her leaving him

Jayce heard that the victim was talking to david from psychology class and also david's girlfriend was angry at him because he talked to victim

Jayce went to talk the david, david said that he knew that victim was atracted to him david seemed like he was hiding something jayce thought david might also liked the victim jayce asked when did they start to talk they were talking for almost a month and david also said that his girlfriend maria was angry at him

Jayce went to talk to maria. Jayce asked “where were you when the incident happened”
“I was in the bathroom”
“Were you alone”
“Why are you asking me this are you a pervert”
“Dont get the wrong idea i am investigating the incident police didnt find anything i am curious"
"It seems like you are curious about something else weirdo, leave me alone"
After this jayce knew maria was hiding something she accused him being a perv but she was flincing it could be a lie would anyone even kill someone just for jealousy even if they do wouldnt they be insane but maria seemed sane tho her old behavior was normal and she wasnt that angry when david was talking to the victim she was angry but not that angry did she get insane in a short time idk

The other suspicious person is liam because liam was the only one who could make a bomb like this. liam was an electric engineer and liam was one of the best of his class also liam knew chemistry it means that he is the only one who could made such a bomb

Jayce asked liam if he knew something about the bomb he said that he could have made something similar to it but he never made a bomb before and also he was talking too fast jayce asked him what he is hiding liam stuttered and excused himself jayca asked liam close friend and asked him instead liam friend told that he wouldn't do something like this unless he is threatened jayce asked how could anyone can threaten him with what liam friend told that"you seem like a good person i am gonna tell you liam actually stole money and drugs his mother was sick and they couldn't afford the medicine and already paid for medical bills(American healthcare)thats why liam stole money and drugs" jayce said "so someone who knew what liam did must have threaten him to make the bomb you are saying"

Jayce think to himself: someone who is angry used liam to make a bomb so they could kill her but why use a bomb rather than traditional methods its seems unnecesery for a murder Hmm maybe something bigger than a murder is in play did someone gain something from this incident lets see

There is seem to be nothing rather just security is increased

Lets see someone could hold a grudge look at the news of the university; drug selling, idk. a girl kidnapped and she is still missing a van kidnapped her it was seen by a camera. the only thing tied is the kidnapped girl sister is in the same psychology class but if i remember they didnt had any conflict and this kidnapping has nothing to with this. Car crash nah this is also has nothing to with anything

At least i am gonna talk to the kidnapped girl sister maybe i can find her (girl name is veronica)
Jayce goes to talk verenica and asks her what happened to her sister
"They kidnapped her out of the blue if only security could have guard her but the school doesnt give a shit" she seemed angry she was a socialogy major jayce asked her any details that helps him to find her sister
Veronica said "i already tried i couldnt save her i am weak" jayce was confused why did she said she was weak is it because she is weak emotionaly or she is weak to save her sister from somewhere jayce asked her “do you know who kidnapped her” she didnt say anything then jayce try to do cold reading “a stalker, mafia, family members” she gave a micro expression at mafia jayce said “its okay you can tell me” she didnt say anything jayce went and looked for the camera recordings the van was black jayce thought its highlikely that mafia kidnapped her but why did mafia even do that the only one who kidnapped in this university is her its a rare occasion i need to know why….

Jayce investigated veronica's past and what she did and jayce found out that veronica sued the University but couldn't win the case she wanted money from the University, University said that this has nothing to with their security and it was only a one time thing because there is no a single kidnapping than this. the lawyer of University is a family member of anna the victim anna also comes from a rich family and anna's family has ties with the University rector

Jayce digged even deeper and found out that veronica and her sister ran away from their home also Veronica had an abusive family veronica and her sister lives together and they are broke jayce decided to ask people from her major and found out that liam and veronica was close friends
Then jayce decided to ask liam again
"Liam I know what you did and I need to know who threaten you" after liam keep quiet for a minute liam told him that a girl threaten him he didnt know who she was only thing he knows is that the girl had yellow hair jayce thought that it could be Veronica but veronica,s hair was always brown

Veronica didn't dye her hair then jayce investigated who had yellow hair and made a list

Anna(victim)

One of anna's friend

Maria

Veronica's sister

Most of the girls who had yellow hair wasnt really a suspect but the closest is maria even tho that there is no evidence that ties to her

Jayce also checked on classmates their emotional state might give a clue it seemed normal but maria was weird she dont talk with anyone and seems a bit sad when she saw me she get anxious and looked away

Jayce decided to find more evidence so he checked cameras but class and hallway didnt have a camera then she checked trash cans and asked the janitor if he found anything in the trash cans like a remote control for the bomb but there was nothing Jayce conculuded that the culprit destroyed the remote or didn't leave anything so jayce thought that even tho there was nothing someone could have seen the culprit when they put the bomb or when they wlth anna then jayce remembered there was two injured person so jayce decided to go to hospital the two injured person was a girl and a boy jayce was entering the hospital and he saw Veronica, Veronica was leaving the hospital she seemed disgusted
Jayce went to the victim rooms the nurse said male lost his memory(chat is this hal 😳)and the girl was unconscious jayce went to their room anyway first he talked wlth the boy he said he doesn't remember anything about a bomb and he also doesn't remember who was with anna he doesn't even remember anna then a doctor came and asked jayce to leave when jayce was leaving doctor said quiely "this is the second one" after that jayce went to girls room even tho he know he can't find anything after jayce went into the girl room she wasnt breathing she was killed he checked the devices they were inactive jayce was stunned someone killed the girl but why he thought about the possibility but he couldn't believe to it he leaved the room without alerting anyone he didnt wanna get involved with the police it would slow him down he was hopeless but then he remember a way that he can get a confession from maria(mini puzzle how can jayce get a confession from sad maria)

Jayce thinks that he could guilt trip her using amnesia pacient and he goes to talk with maria and tells her that "because of what you did people died and injured are you happy now" maria said in a quite voice "i didnt do anything i didnt wanted to" "you say that but you did come and see what you did i am gonna show you you caused someone to die and destroyed their lives" after that jayce told her he wont go to police if she tells him everything maria agree to come to hospital with him

I am giving one clue about why did mafia kidnapped veronica's sister

Veronica and her sister was broke
There was a news about selling drugs it must mean that police cought someone selling drugs and now police has the drugs
Veronica didnt cought by police

Part 2

After i gave the last clue its okay to assume that, since Veronica needed money she worked for mafia to sell drugs.

She caught by the police but didnt get captured she leaved the drugs behind. Mafia was pissed of because they lost all the drug money and kidnapped Veronica's sister. Veronica couldnt face the mafia unless she give them the money they lost so that they could give her sister back.

So she sued the university for their lack of security and demanded money but she couldnt win the case. She couldnt afford a good lawyer either. The university lawyer was tied with Anna the victim after Veronica learn this she started to formulate a plan that would help her the win the case. And also she was avoiding mafia so she needed extra security around school. She also knew that Anna was atracted to david and maria was angry because of that.

so she started her plan first she manipulated maria into getting revenge and take her boyfriend from anna. She said "its just gonna be a big prank she only gonna get hurt a little and she wont talk the david like that and your boyfirend will be all yours" after she persuaded her into assist her plan she gave maria the insturctions to got the bomb.
(I didnt explained the way veronica manipulated maria into cooperate that well so i am gonna explain. veronica only told her that it was just a small explosion and liam was just a student he cant make a deadly bomb, that way maria would think its gonna be a harmless prank just a loud shocking bomb this way veronica persuaded her into doing these.)

Veronica and liam was friends and they even stole money and drugs together Liam would never give her the bomb and Veronica didnt want liam to learn that she is gonna use the bomb so thats why veronica herself cant get the bomb. So maria covered her face and get the bomb from liam.

Veronica even gave the insturctions to where to put the bomb and luring anna. Maria did exactly as Veronica said and lured anna and said her to wait in the classroom then maria went away and activated the bomb. But maria didnt know it was a lethal bomb and went to Veronica, Veronica told her to not panic she said police cant find it was you even the injured ones are in coma. When maria told that she can go to police Veronica said "you did all of this i didnt do anything. You are the one who goes to prison thats why you cant say anything" thats why Maria kept quiet

After that Veronica went to Anna's relative lawyer and persuaded him into support her side so that she can win the case and get the money. She cried in front of the lawyer so that lawyer would help her and feel guilty of him winning the case against her.

One of the injured victim was awake even tho he lost his memories the other one could open her eyes and wouldnt be lost her memory. Veronica couldnt take chances thats why she decided to kill her quietly

She went to hospital, she first asked the amnesia pacient if he remembered anything so that she wouldnt have to kill him too since he is aweke it would be a lot harder. Then she went to girl room and killed her while she was unconcious. She felt bad a little but she remembered she has to this if she wanna save her sister.

When she was leaving the hospital she saw jayce and understand that he was getting closer to solve it. Veronica thought that even if he sees the dead girl he wouldnt go to police yet he needs more evidence to bring her down for good. She knew Maria was holding hard so she anticipated that Jayce could guilt trip her to confess thats why she needed to get rid of the two of them.

She thought that by the time Jayce sees the dead girl and goes to bring Maria to hospital for her to confess, she could get rid of them.

She decided contacted with mafia and told them to capture she wanted the negotiate. She asked for one of the heads of mafia to talk. Then she started to negotiate "you still have my sister and i know you guys didnt killed her so you still want something from me"

"Yes you guessed it right we still have her"

"I need you guys to capture these two so that i can win the case and compensate money for the drugs”

"You think we would do this only for some money"

"You guys know that i blow up that bitch so that i can win the case you already hold my fate in your hands also this is a big incident i am gonna win big from this, it would be 10 times higher than the drugs worth it even enough for you to give me back my sister"

"If you say so, we really need to compensate the drugs... Okay we will do it but you also have to give me what i want if you accept this i'll do it"

"I accept just do it whatever needs to be done i have no choice"

After she negotiated she get on her way to the case and get the money

While Jayce and maria was going to the hospital mafia captured them. even tho Jayce recognized the black van it was too late he got captured

After mafia captured Jayce and Maria they put them with Veronica's sister. Jayce didnt saw her before but he know that its her since Jayce was kidnapped by the same van.

Jayce start to ask questions to her "What is going on whay you and your sister done tell me" she was tired it looked like they didnt feed her at all Jayce didnt ask more questions but she talked quietly "my sister was trying to get money she didnt think she get caught..." Jayce now had understand everything why she did all this

A mafia man come up and told them "you guys are quite the trouble" Jayce had a question in his mind and asked "I dont understand why Veronica goes to university she could have get a job" Mafia mam asmered "she has always wanted to go to university and live a normal life. She also believes that working in a normal job is a lost cause she thinks she can get more money by dirty works. She also didnt wanted to be a prostitute" Jayce understand Veronica even more now. she lived in an abusive house hold she didnt wanna live misreably.

After some time Veronica won the case and got the money then she went to location of her sister. She gave the money and got her sister back.

Mafia man asked what to do with Jayce and Maria, she was gonna tell them to kill but she wanted to talk with Jayce

"Sorry i had to do this i hope you understand"

"You are a criminal and a killer i dont know which one is worse"

"Its not a problem i am living the life i wanted"

"No you not you turned into the person where you runned away from you are not normal, you did this to yourself by getting into this."

"It might be true but i'll get over this. now, i have to kill you too, you have a conscience you wont keep quiet isnt that right. You could work for mafia too or just forget all of this please."

"No you have to kill me and live with this guilt i will be in your memories and haunt you until the day you die so that you will never feel peace."

"Those words are heavy but its okay, its okay even if i never feel peace. Anyway if you want those to be your last words i am leaving. at least you can tell me one of your dreams so that i could do it for you if i get the chance. Also it would help me to fight the guilt."

"Yes i do have i am gonna tell you so that you will feel even more guilt to do so i saw you disgusted when you leave the hospital. i know how you gonna feel thats why i am telling. Always wanted to be a detective i dont care if you become a police or consultant. At least give me the courtesy to feel hope."

"If thats all farewell jayce..."

After that Veronica and her sister get on their way since Veronica lived her days in despair she didnt had time to have a dream she laughed at her "living normal life" dream and decided to be a detective if she can Fin….
