This document regards only the first 5 minutes of the first season's first episode the"The mentalist" the feats are centered around the main character known as patrick Jane, a consultant who works with the california bureau of investigation or CBI for short.

I hope this document displays the great capabilities and potential of this character in as good a depth as I can possibly give at this point in time.

Hope you enjoy the read

He was able to perceive the emotions of the "neighbors boy" and deduce that he was not the murderer after 1 glance
