Aiga Kenji

(Monster Beyond Human Comprehension)
Made by: Osbis

Context

He is a killer who has killed seven women and children since last year causing chaos in the entire Kanto region. One day coincidentally he gets caught not by the police but a small group of people planning to have a deal with police as Aiga was a valuable asset.

- But there is a problem with this plan, that is Aiga himself. You don't want him dead or badly hurt so you can't have dudes with weapons watching over him as in a heat of moment they might just kill Aiga.

- You can't just lock him up and leave. He is a valuable asset so you would want him fresh and well. So you would have to have your eyes on him 24/7.

Assessing these problems the group takes turns having a man inside the room where Aiga is captured with a gun (Unloaded gun) just to scare away Aiga so he won't try to attack.

Massacre For Fun

Aiga uses his intuition and says “The man named Ginji Hihari and your boss.. They left, didn't they” to the man in the room with him, who reacted to the statement with confusion, concerns and even fear with a drop of sweat huh? and how? So he confirms that Ginji and boss have truly left.

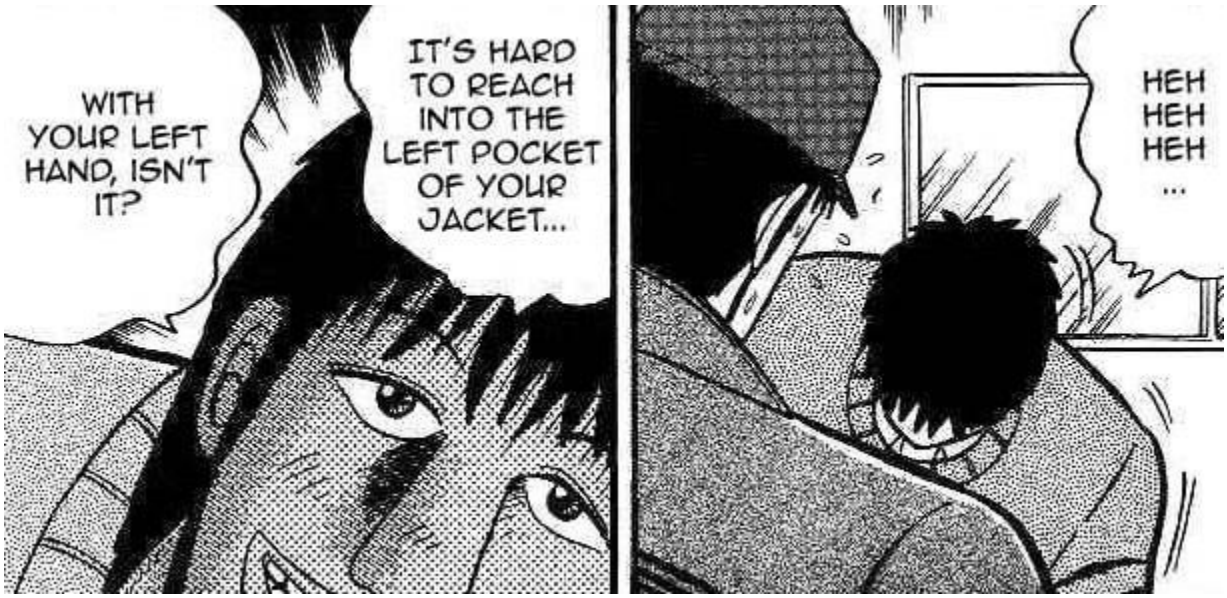

Aiga slowly approaches the man taunting him of his fate, that is death. The man tries to threaten Aiga but Aiga already knows that the Gun.

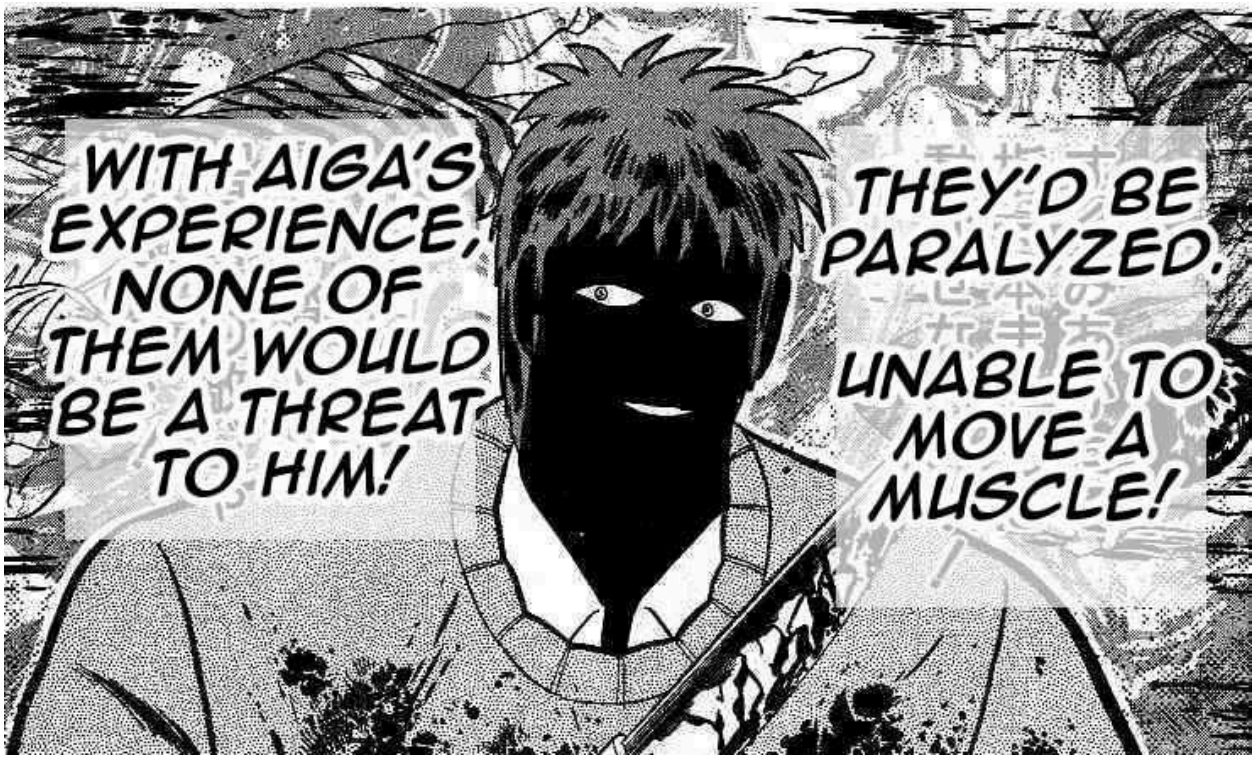

As he took a stance as Aiga approached him being afraid. If the gun had a bullet he had no reason fear him and even if the gun had the bullet just the fact that he didn't shoot knowing Aiga is going to kill him and was afraid of him taking a stance means he wouldn't have shot him more so his boss wouldn't allow them shoot him as he was a valuable asset to them which was the reason he hadn't been reported to police when they caught him. But since the men are so afraid they are bound to keep some actually deadly weapon on them in this case it was a knife but.

Since Aiga was holding the Gun he couldn't let go of the gun as Aiga would just use it to bust his head with it and since he couldn't pull out the knife quickly, panic that had already taken over him makes his brain down right incapable of functioning.

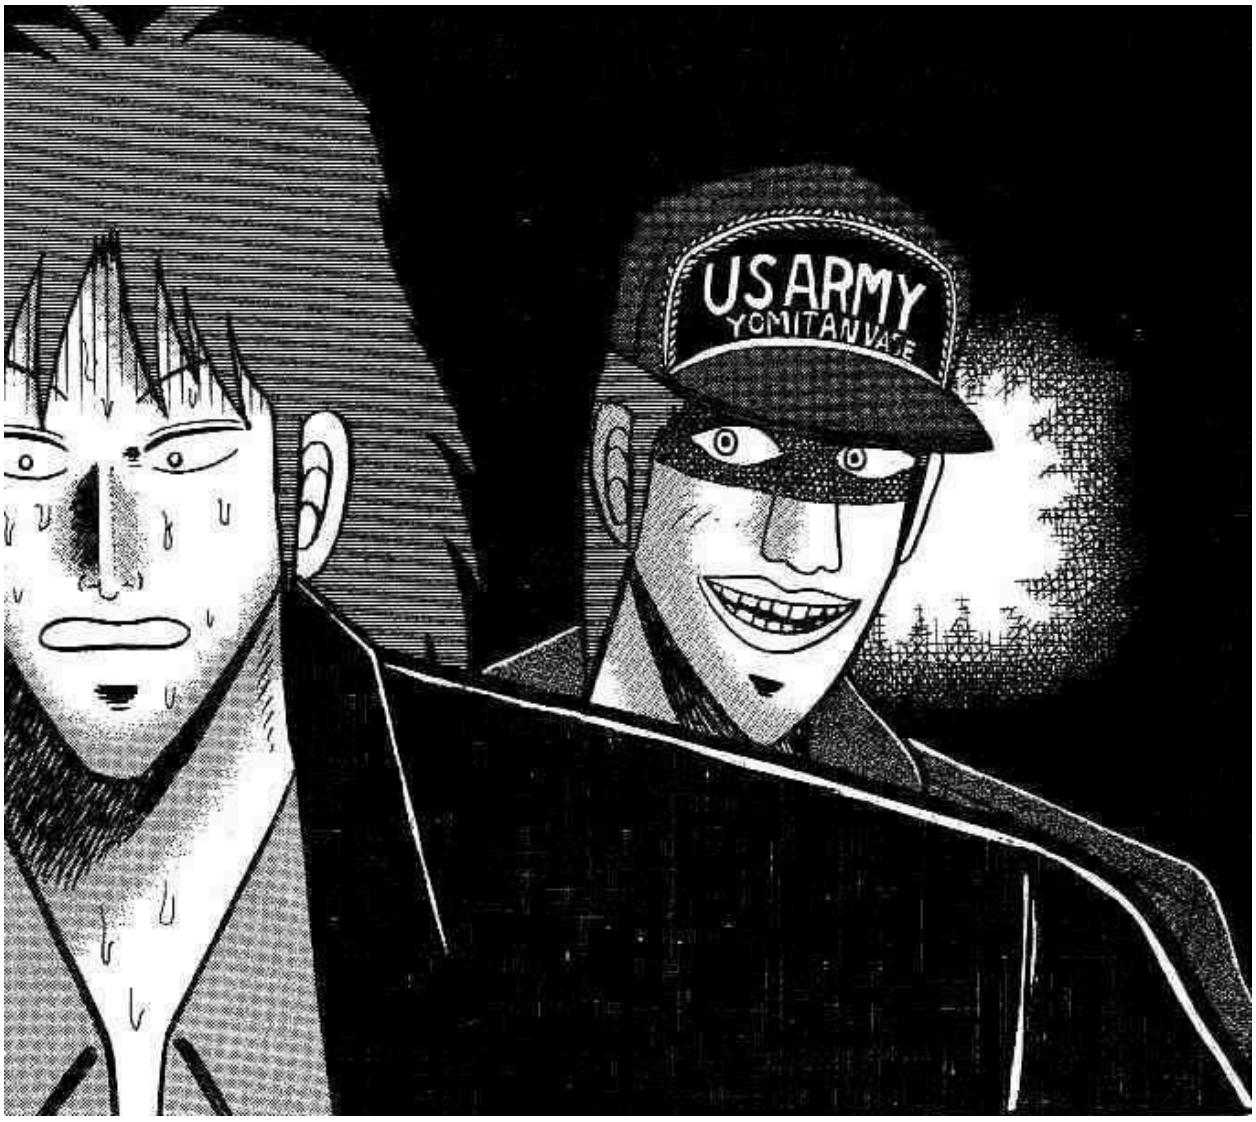

Aiga then just lets out a roar a simple jumpscare

Which catches man's clouded man by surprise using that split second moment of frozen time Aiga takes the gun, crushes man's head and chokes him to death. He then swaps clothes with him and puts the dead body into the bed to make it look like he is sleeping. Another man comes into the room.

THIS IS THE WORST POSSIBLE OUTCOME!
RMY
AN VASE
チラ
AND NO ONE HAS REAL-IZED IT YET.

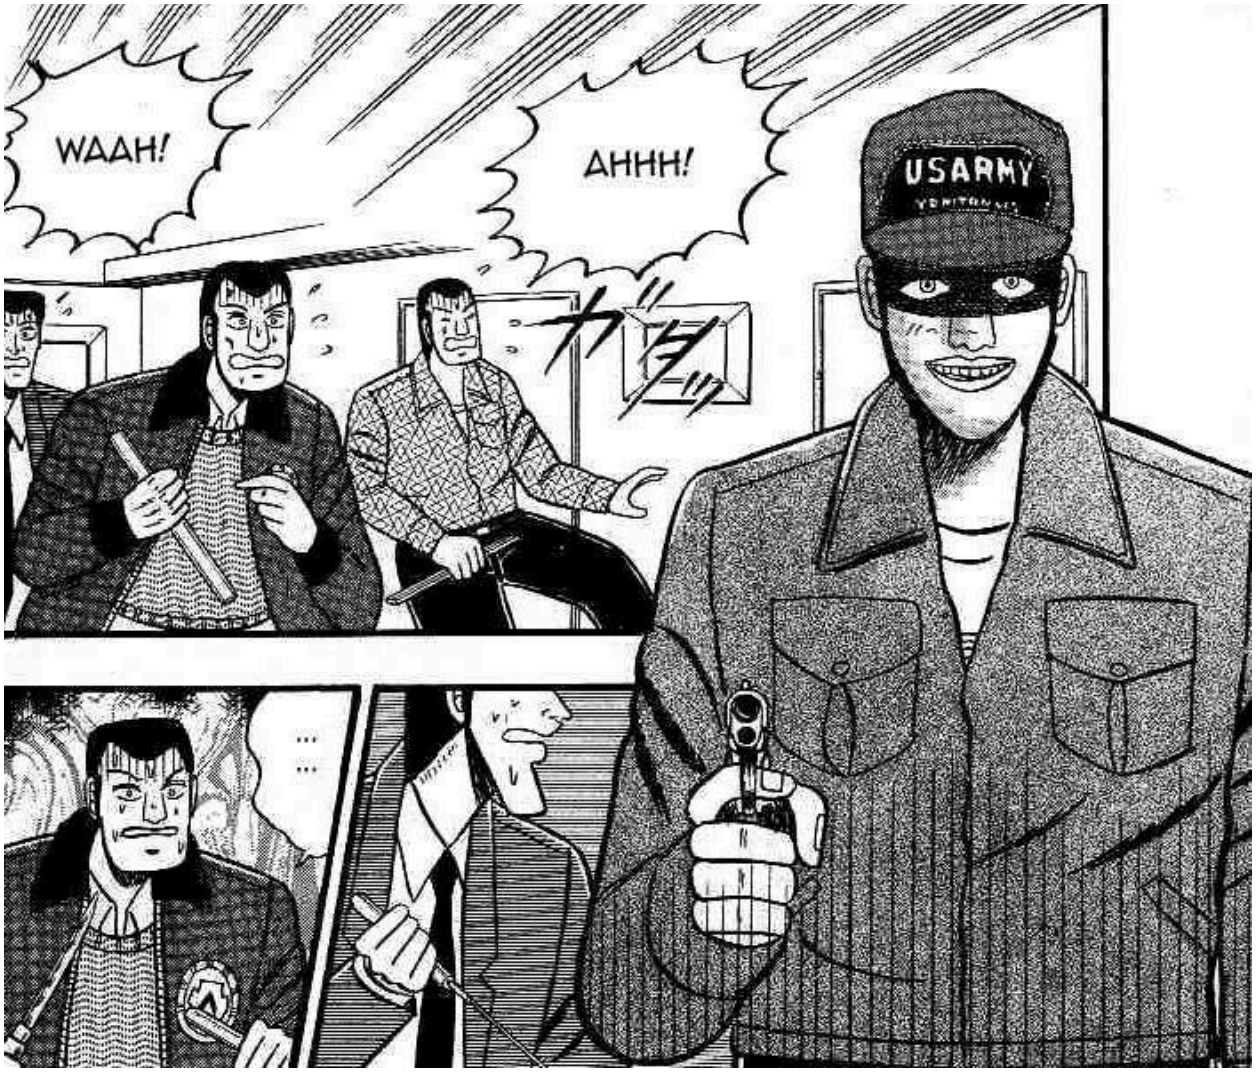

Lifting up the bed sheet the thing he sees isn't Aiga sleeping but a dead body of one of their men with grim reaper behind him eager to take his life.

He acquires a gun from the man with 6 bullets; he then calmly walks out of the room pretending to be one man of the group.

He then checks the bathroom to make sure no one is there and assesses the situation on how to deal with all of the men. He has 6 bullets and a knife. 6 bullets is enough to take all of the 4 men out but he has to be calculative in a heat of the moment bullets are sure to miss the target or not hit the vital point. Morita notices that the person that just left the room was none other than Aiga telling others about it. They check the room and find the dead bodies of their men. As they look back:

Aiga was prepared. He proposes a simple deal: let's not just fight and waste lives here. If they let him go he will let them go. Morita suggests others not do that as Aiga has not used a gun before so he will miss his shots but they do as he says trying to open the door out of fear only to meet their fate. A warning to morita thinking.

CAN SHOW GREAT STRENGTH WHEN CORNERED.
US ARMY
EVEN A RAT ...
UWAAAH!
AHHH!
IT WON'T THINK OF ANYTHING BUT FLEEING.
AS LONG AS THE POSSIBILITY EXISTS, THE RAT WON'T FIGHT.
AAA AH!
AAH!
ALL THAT NEEDS TO BE DONE IS GIVE IT A WAY TO ESCAPE.
IN ORDER TO AVOID THAT...
AH!

Morita makes a run for it. He uses a similar trick Aiga used before switching places of the dead. Making Aiga waste the last bullet catching Aiga off guard at the end.

Aiga still had his knife so he immediately recovers and switches the weapon.

Morita decides to fight back which surprises Aiga as he wasn't like others he had killed before so he immediately thinks of a plan resorting to peace and convinces Morita to just let go as it's not worth it to die here.

Peace We believe

YOU'RE THE LOWEST TYPE OF SCUM...
FREAK!
TRASH THAT ONLY KILLS THE WEAK!
PSYCHO!
CUT THE SHIT ...
LIKE HELL WE'LL "COUNT TO THREE AND THROW OUR WEAPONS AWAY"!
THAT'S THE SORT OF TRICK YOU USE TO MURDER PEOPLE!
A LONG TIME AGO, SOME KID TOLD ME...
A SAFE WAY TO DISARM AT THE SAME TIME AS AN ENEMY.
ON TRASH LIKE ME?
DO YOU REALLY WANT TO RISK YOUR LIFE...
HEH HEH ...

...
JUST TAKE IT STEP BY STEP UNTIL WE'RE DONE AND SAFE.
ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS EXACTLY THE SAME THING I DO, MORITA-KUN.
WE USE OUR FREE HAND TO GRAB THE OTHER'S HAND.
WHEN WE'VE DONE THAT...
...
JUST LIKE THIS.
FIRST, POINT THE KNIFE AT YOURSELF AND HOLD IT AWAY FROM YOUR BODY.

AND I'LL PUT MY WEAPON ON THE FLOOR.
NOW, WE BOTH KNEEL DOWN...
KEEP MY HAND ABOUT TEN CENTI-METERS ABOVE THE KNIFE.
EVEN IF I DID GO FOR A KNIFE WITH MY LEFT HAND...
THAT WAY...
ALLOWS US TO SECURE BOTH WEAPONS.
DOING THIS ...

With that Aiga leaves the room to change Morita immediately locks the door and goes on to cool himself but he had anticipated such a move as he uses the window to escape and enters the bathroom with weapons…deadly weapons.
