Gilgamesh
“King of Heroes”

I shall perform this final blow as a parting gift to you!
I will tell you of the beginning.
Heaven and Earth split, nothingness praised creation, my Sword of Rupture cleaved the world!
Mortar of the stars, heaven's hell is the eve of creation's celebration.
Now you shall die and be silent...

Haxes related to Intelligence (Or Things in Nasuverse That Increases His Intelligence) :

1- Being a servant gives every servant two things :

[1] Great enchantment for the person's body whatever age they are.

[Overall AC]

[2] Whenever the servant is summoned, they will be given an immediate knowledge of the current era and what is going on so that they can adapt to the environment.

[Overall Adaptability - General Knowledge - PSI - WMI]

2- He is given a different intelligence hax depending on his Class like this :

[1] Archer Gilgamesh, gets an insane enchantment to his sense of sight, making him see a building from hundreds of KMs as if it is next to him.

[Perception - Observation]

[2] Ruler Gilgamesh, being a Ruler class(A true one) servant gives the servant immediate knowledge of whoever the servant in front of them is by just looking at them (There are a few cases where you can't know who they are).

[General Knowledge - Perception - PSI]

3- Sha Naqba Imuru: The Omniscient Omnipotent Star

Sha Naqba Imuru: The Omniscient Omnipotent Star (全知なるや全能の星シャ・ナクパ・イルム, Zenchinaru ya Zen'nō no HoshiSha Nakupa Irumu?) is the mentality of Gilgamesh sublimated into a Noble Phantasm, said to have "spread across all corners of the world as if the brilliance of the stars, seeing through all creation."

It is a "continuously active-type Noble Phantasm" that does not require its name to be invoked, but it is assumed that Gilgamesh keeps it intentionally restrained.

Possessing tremendous efficiency, it can discern heavily concealed truths with a single glance, from that of the opponent's True Name and Noble Phantasms to possibly even seeing through a piece of the truth of the demise of human history in the Grand Orders of Fate/Grand Order.

Upon releasing its True Name, it will work as a form of "instruction" for him to guide others with the most optimal tactics, simultaneously increasing the attack power and defense power of his whole team near his position.

4- Clairvoyance

Gilgamesh is a clairvoyance user with a "sense of 'sight' several levels above the ordinary."

When facing him in a game like chess, he claims that even someone making advanced predictions and reading the flow of the game will have already lost at that moment.

He does not read the future of the chess board, but instead gazes down upon and oversees it, allowing the correct move to always be visible to him.

Even in something like a card game, the very minimum requirement to play against him on equal terms would be to draw the precise hand required.

He can also see the possibilities of various parallel worlds should he so choose, such as being able to see his participation in the Fourth Fuyuki Holy Grail War and even glimpse the world of Fate/hollow ataraxia, albeit accidentally.

[PSI - VSI - Overall Cognition - Overall Sensory - Overall Foresight - Overall Counteraction]

5- Golden Rule : Being fated to have a life that is filled with riches, he can live as a millionaire. Gilgamesh lives the life of a nabob and has no money troubles for the entirety of his life. In the legend, he claimed all the world’s treasures as his own and is said to have infinite wealth in his Golden Capital. The originals of Noble Phantasms preserved in his treasury were collected during this period. Although this ability seems unrelated to battle, it plays a great role in arming Gilgamesh.

This Hax gives Gilgamesh a complete advantage in any game that relies on luck like Poker which was proven in Fate/Strange Fake day 1.

[Luck Advantage]

These Haxes alone should put Gilgamesh immediately as a High Tier if not higher idk.

[Fate/Zero]

[Episode 8-12 - Chapter 17-33]

Gilgamesh asked Kirei to investigate the reasons for the participation of all the other masters in the war, saying he just wanted to know if any of them was more interesting than Tokiomi.

But [In Episode 12 - Chapter 33] it turns out that Gilgamesh wanted Kirei himself to see the truth about himself.

...HAVING YOU TELL ABOUT WHAT YOU SAW, AND HEARD, AND YOUR UNDERSTANDING OF THINGS FROM YOUR OWN LIPS...ALREADY HAS CONSIDERABLE MEANING FOR ME.
THERE-FORE, KIREI...
PEOPLE ARE TOYS...
LIVES ARE STORIES...
THE THING YOU SPOKE ABOUT THE MOST IS THE THING THAT MOST CAPTIVATED YOUR "INTEREST."
...THERE IS NO GREATER AMUSEMENT.
IF YOU SEEK THE SOURCE OF WHAT'S MOST PLEASURABLE TO YOU, THE BEST WAY IS TO LISTEN TO WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT PEOPLE.
IN YOUR CASE, WE SHOULD PAY MORE ATTENTION TO THE INTERESTS YOU'RE UNAWARE OF.
AN INTEREST THAT ONE IS AWARE OF SIMPLY A FIXATION, NO MORE.
FIRST OF ALL, LET'S SET ASIDE THE PERSON YOU'VE DELIBERATELY AVOIDED SPEAKING ABOUT.

Gilgamesh also noted how passionately Kirei spoke of Berserker's master [Kariya Matou] since he spoke in details on his situation and then Kirei answered saying that "his situation is the most complex" on which Gilgamesh corrected him saying :

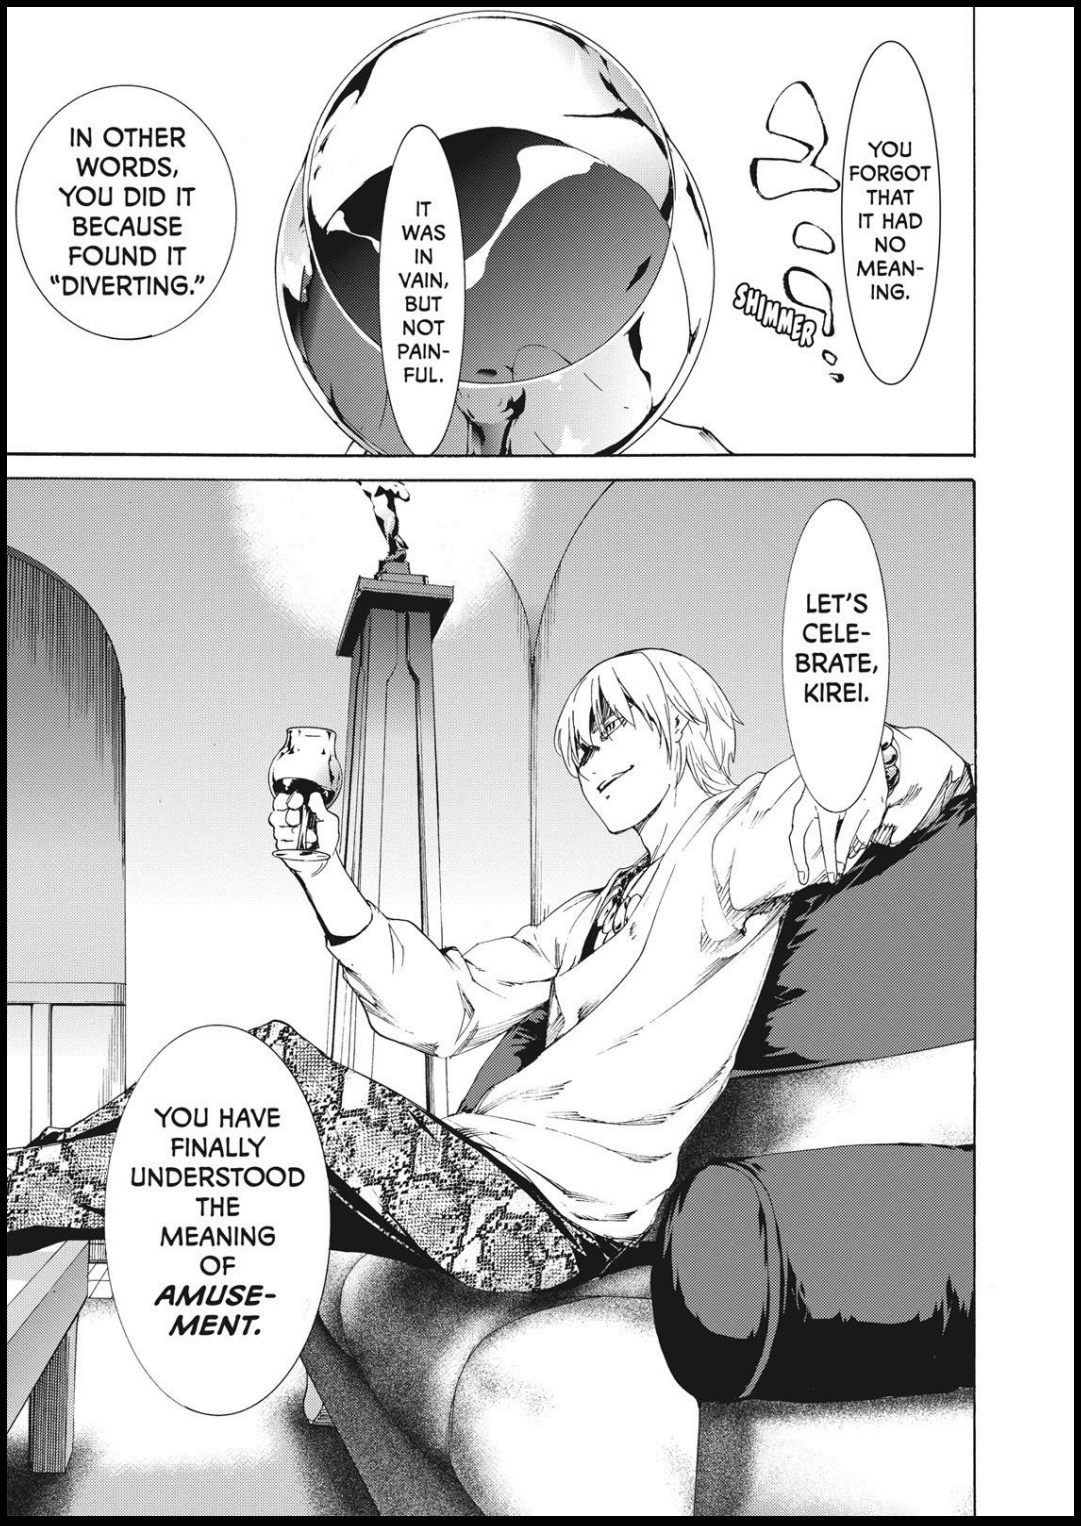

Making Kirei question his own judgment, until Gilgamesh asked him to imagine a scenario where Kariya survives to the end, and after imagining it Kirei asked what is the point on which he said "None".

And Gilgamesh explained that all of his speech was simply to show Kirei that he finally felt the joy of doing something.

CREAK
EXPLAIN IT TO ME, ARCHER.
DON'T YOU THINK THERE'S CLEAR AND UNSHAKABLE MEANING IN THAT?
THE FACT THAT KIREI KOTOMINE NEVER RECOGNIZED THE POINTLESS-NESS IN THAT SPECULATION.
THINK ABOUT IT.

YOU ABANDONED YOUR USUAL NO-NONSENSE WAY OF THINKING AND GAVE YOURSELF UP TO DRAWN OUT, WORTHLESS FANTASIZING.
BUT THAT'S NOT WHAT HAPPENED WITH KARIYA.
IF...SAY... YOU HAD BEEN PRESENTED WITH THE SAME PROBLEM, BUT ABOUT THE OTHER MASTERS...
...YOU WOULD HAVE RECOGNIZED THE POINTLESSNESS OF IT IMMEDIATELY, AND REFUSED TO DO IT SINCE IT WAS USELESS.

On which Kirei denied his words saying this joy is sin, until he was proven wrong by the grail itself giving him his command spells back meaning all of Gilgamesh speech was right, which was anticipated by Gilgamesh.

{7th Singularity Babylonia} [Turas Realta Manga]

[Chapter 62]

Gilgamesh was able to build high defensive cannons that kept the city of Uruk safe.

[Crystallized Intelligence - FRI]

—----------

[Chapter 63]

Gilgamesh said that he saw the future where Chaldea will come to Uruk and he knew everything about them and their purpose.

[This feat was done with Hax no doubt about it]

[Prediction - Situational Awareness]

—----------

[Chapter 64]

Merlin explained that through Gilgamesh's Clairvoyance he foresaw the destruction of Uruk and he knew that he couldn't prevent it by himself.

Therefore Gilgamesh summoned heroic spirits and ordered them to protect the land by establishing the north wall.

[Prediction - Contingencies - Strategy Fortitude - Decision Making]

—----------

[Chapter 66-67]

He ordered both Mash and Ritsuka to go with him on a mission to investigate the water quality of the Persian gulf with only the two of them.

But this turned out to be a misdirection from him because Ritsuka explained that Gilgamesh used them as pawns to lure Enkidu, and that is because Gilgamesh said

“Hah, but to think that it’s gone as well as I expected”

Applying that he predicted that these actions will lead to lure Enkidu out of his hiding spot.

Later as a reward for their [Mash and Ritsuka] work, Gilgamesh was misleading them on the road telling them to go the wrong way without knowing because he wanted to show them the beautiful nature that no longer exists in our world.

[Chapter 80]

[Marduk Blitzkrieg Strategy]

The soldiers will divert the attention of the demonic beasts using all the forces at the northern wall as a diversion.

As soon as Ritsuka and his team reach the temple Quetzalcoatl will throw the huge axe where Merlin will use the axe delivered to him and open the lid of the temple.

Then Ritsuka and his team will confront Grogon and win.

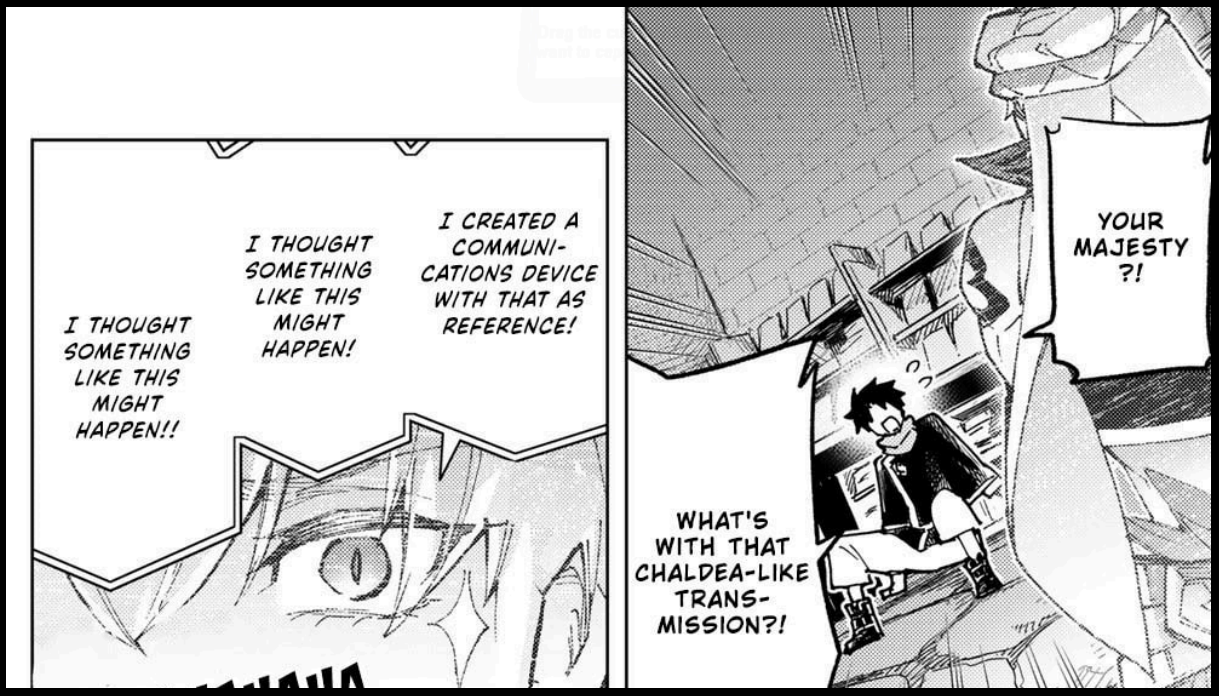

And the strategy was successful.

[Chapter 85]

Gilgamesh was able to create a communication device using a spell the same as the one in Chaldea to be able to communicate with them if anything since he can't use their one by himself.

[Learning Ability - Crystallized Intelligence - Contingencies]

—----------

[Chapter 87]

To make sure everyone was ready for tomorrow's fight, Gilgamesh ordered them to rest knowing how tired they are even though they say they can keep going.

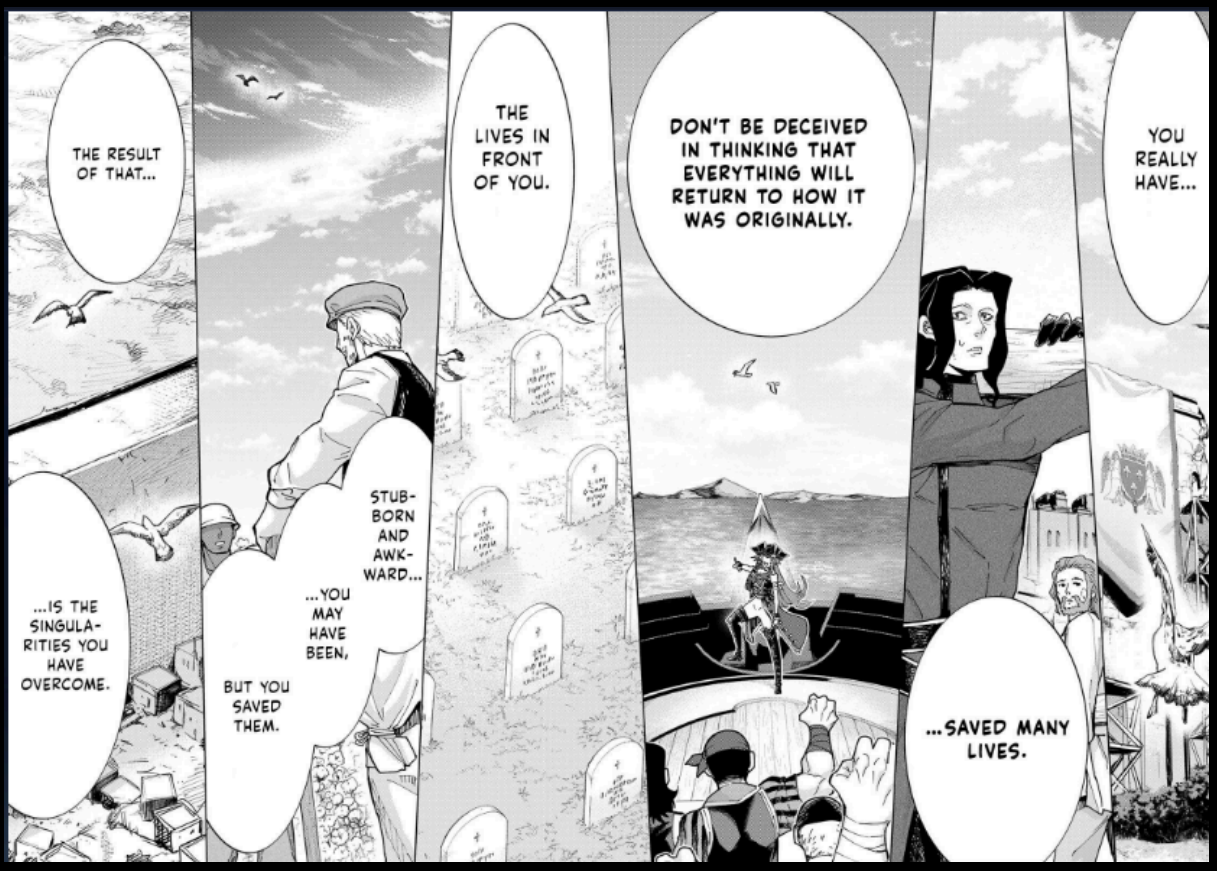

[Decision Making - Situational Awareness - Leadership - EF]

—----------

[Chapter 88]

Gilgamesh took on the role to explain the unspoken truth about the singularities that neither Mash or Ritsuka knew which is the fact that solving the problem in the singularity won't bring back the people that died in the process, meaning all of they did to solve the singularities only helped less people than they believed they did.

But he told them that their fights were not meaningless and told them to stand proud :

Making Mash and Ritsuka fall in tears and they thanked Gilgamesh.

[Section 8]

By a single meeting with Kirei [Note : He has no idea who he is in

Grand Order] Gilgamesh immediately called him a threat to Chaldea :

[Background] [Figure]

Hahaha.
Fujimaru, you'd be best-served by lopping off that man's head now, while you have the chance.

If you don't, there is no question that he will betray you, and at the most inopportune time to boot.

[Fate/Strange Fake]

[Chapter 1]

Gilgamesh ordered his new Master (Tine Chelc) to act more childly in an attempt to cheer her up because he understood that her childhood was stolen from her, which explains why she acts like this.

IF YOU'RE TO BE MY RETAINER,
YOU MUST FOLLOW MY COMMANDS.
