⚠️ WARNING: SPOILERS FOR THE SERIES Neuro: Supernatural Detective AHEAD ⚠️

Neuro: Supernatural Detective is a series by Yusei Matsui, the same author as Assasination Classroom. The premise of this series is a demon from the Underworld coming to Earth in search of the "Ultimate Puzzle" to solve. Now, the questions you may be asking are "What kind of puzzles is he searching for?" and "Why is he searching for puzzles, or the 'Ultimate Puzzle'?" and the answers to those are quite simple. The reason why he's searching for puzzles in the first place is because they're his source of food, and naturally, seeking the "Ultimate Puzzle" would grant him the "Ultimate Meal". Now, even though the Earth has significantly less Miasma, which is comparable to Oxygen for a demon, Neuro still leaves the Underworld to Earth in search of these puzzles, even though it reduces his overall ability to a mere 1/10000 of its true potential. "Why would he risk his life, even giving up his source of breathing, just for food? Couldn't he just keep devouring puzzles in the Underworld?" one may ask, and indeed, a great idea, if not for one small issue: Neuro has already devoured all the puzzles from the Underworld (More on this later).

Now that the stage is set, here are some final disclaimers:

1. Because he's not human, there will obviously be certain categories (like FSIQ for example) that will be insanely high, and because of this I won't go into as much depth for these categories.
2. The main purpose of this feats document is to gain awareness and inform more people about this character. Since I am but a human, I obviously might not portray and explain certain categories as well, but I will do my best to provide enough screenshots and context for each panel to allow you, the reader of this document, to come to your own conclusions.
   But of course, the best way to properly scale a character is to read the series yourself and judge them based on how you believe they should scale
3. This is my first time making a feats document for a character, so apologies for the bad formatting, as I will try to show the best feat(s) for the given category (In my opinion).

Without further ado, let's get into the feats of the Great Demon Detective, Nougami Neuro

*The reason the categories are in this order is due to how I personally see his best to worst categories

As stated in the disclaimer, these are the 2 categories (FSIQ & Info Gathering) I will put the least emphasis on due to him using/having abilities that regular humans can't

FSIQ:

- ➔ PSI
- ➔ CPI
- ➔ VCI

PSI - FLT Exercises in the demon world, able to easily react and catch a bullet with his eyelid

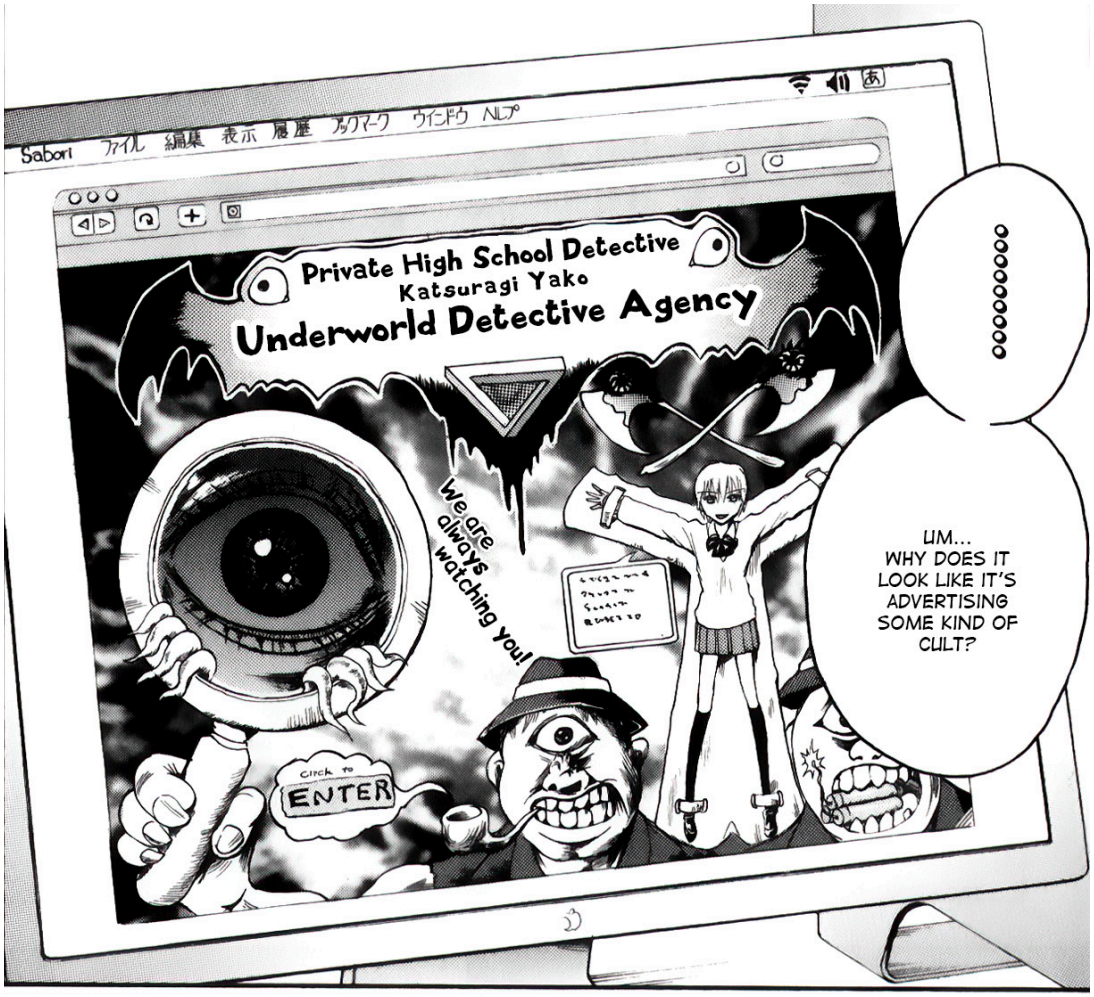

CPI - Able to read MULTIPLE books & scroll the Internet at the same time to consume knowledge while ALSO creating a company website that has (scroll down for manga panels)

I HAVE ENOUGH EYES,
BUT I'M SHORT ON HANDS.
THIS IS HOW NEURO'S BEEN TAKING IN ALL KINDS OF INFORMATION ABOUT THE SURFACE AS QUICKLY AS HE CAN.

Creating a website while scanning all the books/gaining knowledge

Added subliminal images within the website

VCI - able to decipher a code that only ONE person in the world knew how to read
(scroll down for manga panels)

WHAT THE HELL IS THIS?
I'M SURE NOBODY EXCEPT YOU CAN READ IT, MISTER.
HERE YOU GO.
THAT REMINDS ME, YOU SAID THAT YOU'D MADE UP A CODE, DIDN'T YOU.

YOU CAN READ IT, NEURO!?

...THERE IT IS.
THE DATE WAS JUNE 15, SIX YEARS AGO.
WHEN I HAVE SUCH A RIDICULOUS AMOUNT OF FREE TIME, I SHOULD TRY SOLVING IT.
IT HAS SIMPLE RULES.

As stated in the disclaimer, these are the 2 categories (FSIQ & Info Gathering) I will put the least emphasis on due to him using/having abilities that regular humans can't

Info Gathering:

In the beginning of the series, due to the lack of connections, he uses his magical abilities to get information in the case, although later in the series he moves to using a company under his underling and the police.

Neuro beginning of series:

ピタ

THE HUMAN THAT THE CULPRIT WANTED TO KILL...
...WAS SEATED WHERE HE COULD BE KILLED.
THAT IS ALL THERE IS TO IT.
WELL WELL...
OOOH!
THE SOLU-TION OF THIS MYSTERY IS ALREADY ON THE TIP OF MY TONGUE.
I HAVE FOUND AN OPENING.
THERE IT IS.

Neuro later in the series:

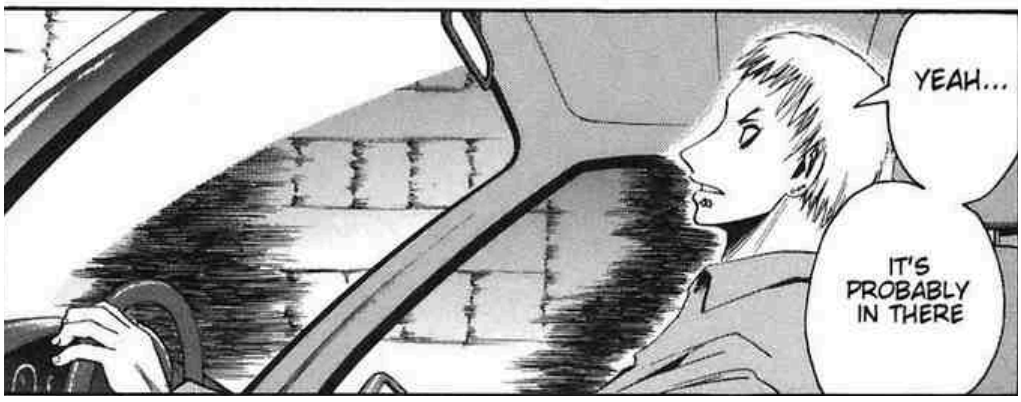

THE FUTURE PHYSICS RESEARCH LAB...
THE PLACE THEY HAVE A SUPERCOMPUTER FOR THE SIMULATION OF PHYSICAL MOTION
CHAPTER 73 銃【GUN】

IN OTHER WORDS...
THOSE PEOPLE ARE BEING FORCED TO GUARD...
THE SUPERCOMPUTER THAT WAS THE SOURCE OF THE OBSTRUCTING DATA...?

THE PLACE THAT GODAI WAS DIRECTED TO BY HIS SUBORDINATES ...
IT SEEMS AS THOUGH NOBODY FROM THE LIST OF RESEARCHERS HAS BEEN COMING OR GOING

I SEE IT NOW
AND YOU'RE NOT MISTAKEN, GODAI?
THE FINAL SUPER-COMPUTER IS...
CHAPTER 78 逃【 RUN 】

YEAH...
IT'S PROBABLY IN THERE

FSEQ:

I added this here just for formalities and such, however he has no FSEQ feats (literally none), which is also why he decided to use Yako Katsuragi as the “detective” figurehead while he investigates (She finds the motives of the criminals)

Everything past this point will consist of actual feats by Neuro (Feats performed with minimal connection to his demonic abilities)

Experience:

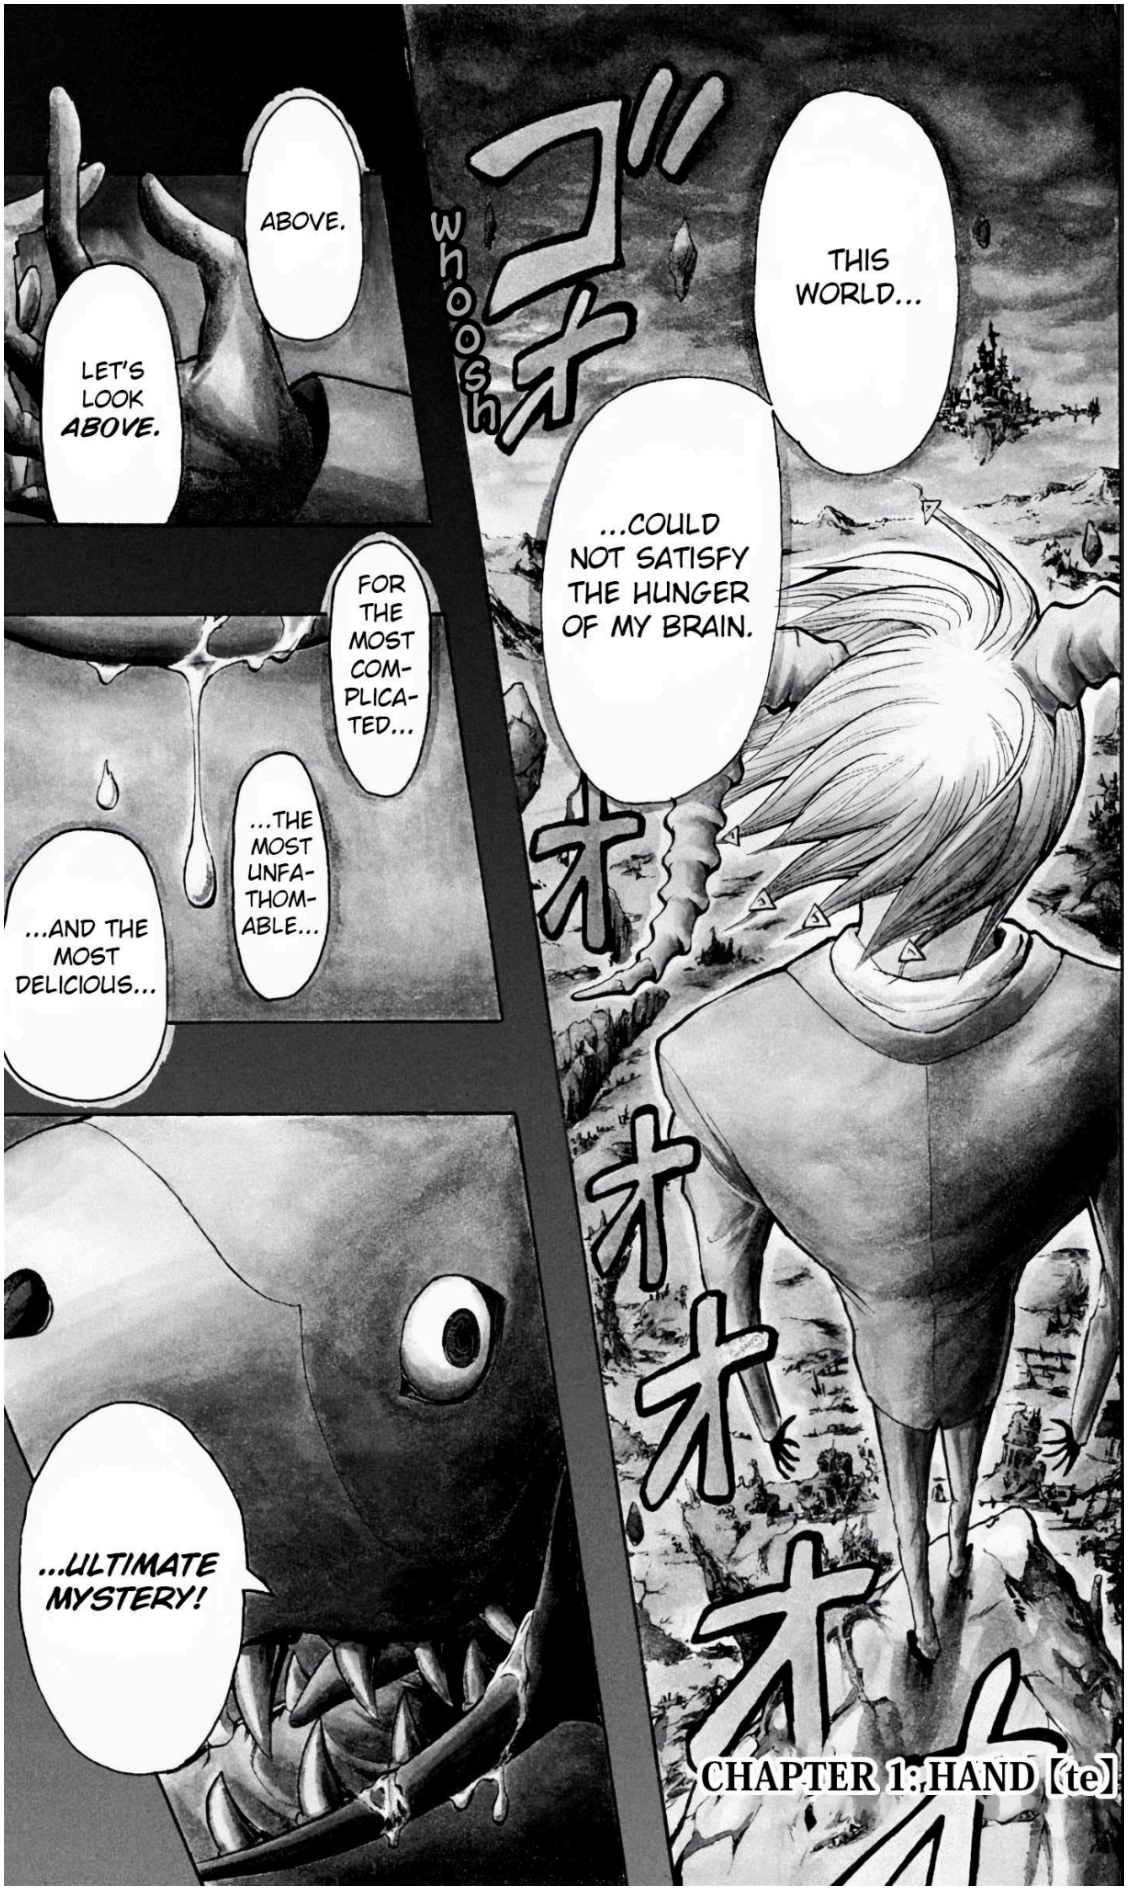

By far Neuro's best category, was able to solve ALL of the Demon World's mysteries, able to easily solve most/all of the puzzles from Earth as well

IF YOU WANTED TO SOLVE MYSTERIES, WOULDN'T IT HAVE BEEN FINE TO DO THAT WHILE STAYING IN THE DEMON REALM?
YOU WOULDN'T HAVE HAD TO GO THROUGH THE TROUBLE OF HIDING YOUR IDENTITY...
...AND ACTING OUT A ROLE HERE ON THE SURFACE.
...BUT...
...WHY DID YOU COME UP TO THE SURFACE?
AS YOU KNOW, MINE OWN SOLE SOURCE OF NUTRIENTS IS...
...THE ENERGY THAT IS EMITTED WHEN I SOLVE A MYSTERY.
THE MORE COMPLEX A MYSTERY IS...
...THE RICHER THE FLAVOR AND THE HIGHER THE CALORIES COUNT.
HOWEVER, THE MYSTERIES IN THE DEMON WORLD ARE BOTH SIMPLE AND SMALL.
NO MATTER HOW MUCH I FEED ON THEM, THEY CAN'T SATISFY THE HUNGER OF MINE OWN BRAIN.
...AND BEFORE I REALIZED IT...

...I HAD ENDED UP FEEDING ON ALL THE MYSTERIES IN THE DEMON WORLD, LEAVING NOT A SINGLE ONE BEHIND.
...I, TOO, CAME TO THE SURFACE, SEEKING MYSTERIES.
JUST AS A HUNGRY BEAR DESCENDS UPON HUMAN SETTLEMENTS...

WHO DO YOU THINK I AM?
I AM THE ONE WHO DEVOURED EVERY MYSTERY IN THE DEMON WORLD!

WHO DO YOU THINK I AM?
I AM THE MAN WHO DEVOURED ALL THE MYSTERIES OF THE DEMON WORLD.

THIS WORLD...
...COULD NOT SATISFY THE HUNGER OF MY BRAIN.

CHAPTER 1: HAND【te】

Observation/Perception:

Another amazing category for him, being able to

- Spot a dropped contact lens in a room (and the missing contact from the culprit's eye) that not even the police found
- Easily spotted the difference between a real and an imposter person despite almost perfectly replicating them
- Realized someone was faking death through the vibrations of their cells
- Could hear the difference between a real bellhop & a fake one through sounds on an (old) phone
- Able to find out the specific type of tree through an old phone (while only seeing its leaves on the ground)

Finding the missing contact

Identifying an imposter through bloodlust

Despite disguising death

Was able to see response to conversation, physical response, & vibrations of cells (in a dark room which police weren't even able to catch)

Calling out the fake bellhop

Finding out through the sounds of a phone (keep in mind this manga was published between 2005-2009, so it's an old flip phone, not the advanced modern ones we use)

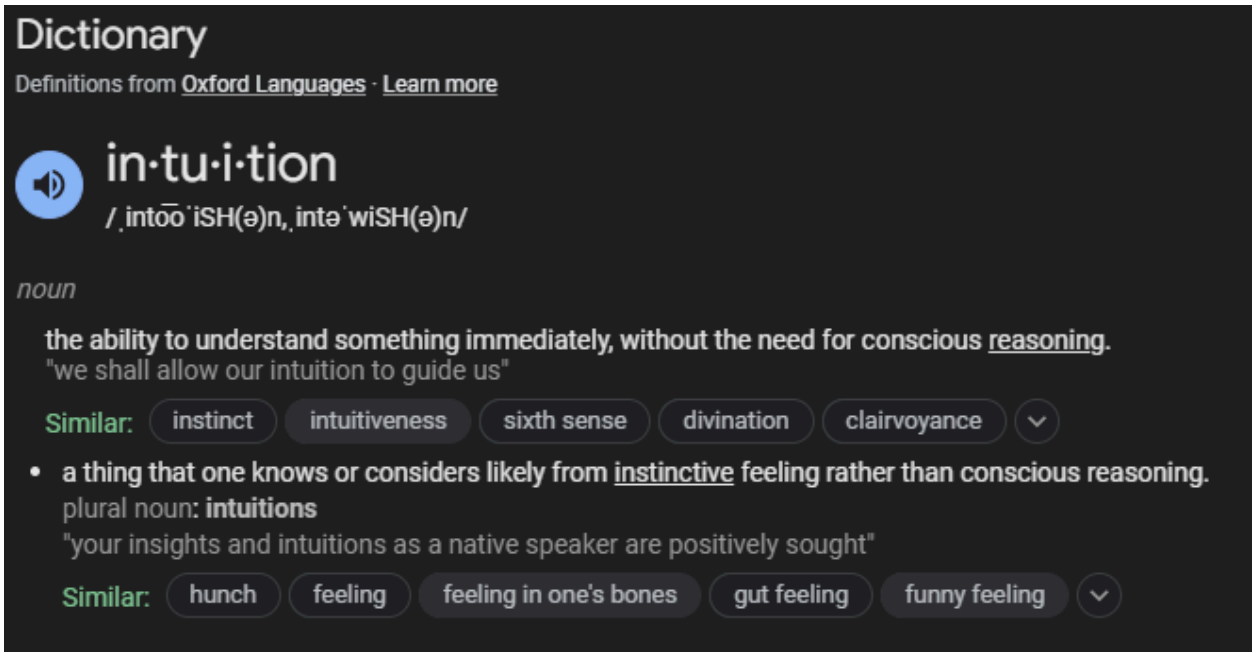

If you look closely, in the second panel on the right you can see he finds the exact tree type and knows about the tree through just the old camera video quality of its leaves

Intuition:

Before we get into this, let's define intuition:

Google Definition -

Webster Dictionary -

intuition noun

in·tu·i·tion ˌin-tü-ˈi-shən -tyü-

Synonyms of intuition ›

1 a : the power or faculty of attaining to direct knowledge or cognition without evident rational thought and inference b : immediate apprehension or cognition

c : knowledge or conviction gained by intuition

2 : quick and ready insight

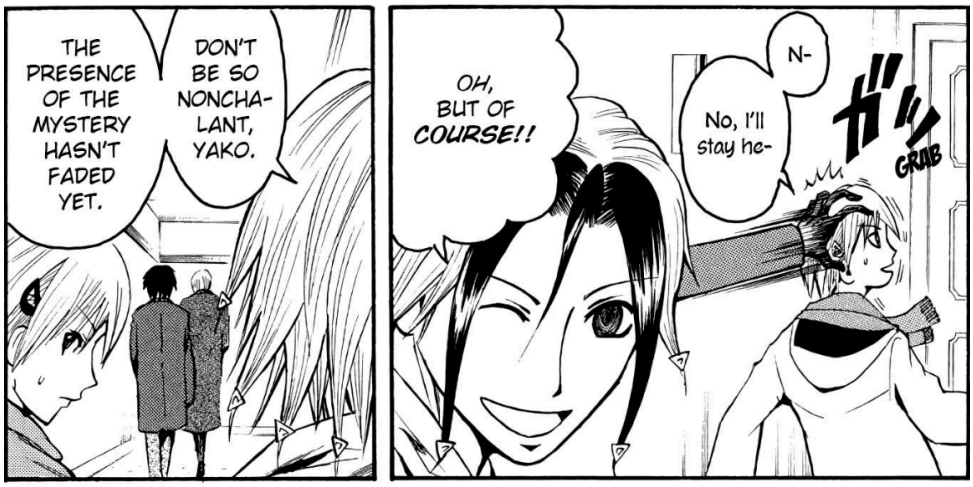

intuitional ˌin-tü-ˈi-sh(ə-)nəl -tyü- adjective

Using these two definitions, we can see that intuition is to gain knowledge/understand something immediately without needing any evidence or reasoning

Therefore, we can conclude that whenever Neuro is able to "smell" a puzzle or find a potential puzzle before it even happens, it works as his intuition, or gut feeling, sensing something and him acting upon that gut feeling.

*Obviously this can be up to interpretation, however I believe this counts as intuition

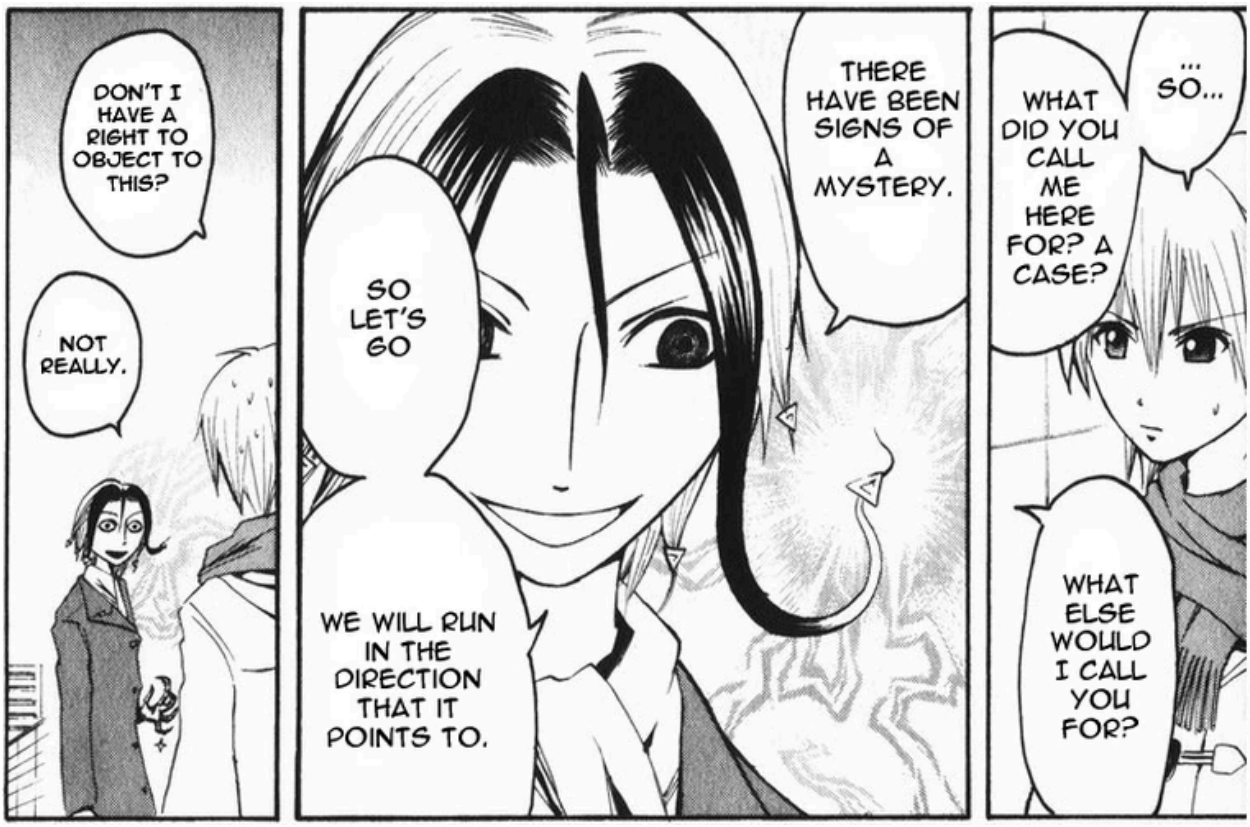

A few examples of Neuro using his intuition to find a case:

PTOO
...A MURDER SHALL OCCUR IN THIS SHOP.
sip ズ"
sip ズ"…
IN A TRICE...
C'MON, SO EMBAR-RASS-ING...
I'M TOO OLD TO SPIT THINGS OUT OF MY MOUTH.
'TIS NOT A JOKE.
...FOR I CAN SENSE THE MYS-TERY.
WAI-
STOP JOKING AROUND!

Can even roughly estimate the direction it will occur in/how long it will take to occur/occurred

Anticipation/Prediction:

There are quite a lot, however I'll just show the main/strongest points he's shown

- Realized from the beginning that there would be a "password" involved to get to the puzzle (a puzzle that an electronic person known as HAL created), and to counteract that he brought his figurehead (Yako) with him through all his "trials" of defeating "Sphinxes" (supercomputers that HAL used to protect him/his puzzle) because he knew she would be able to solve and decipher the password
- Realized the whole building had a bomb that could kill everyone so he sent Yako (his figurehead) to diffuse it before confronting the enemy
- Able to anticipate the rough direction X (best shapeshifter in the series, almost no one can identify him when shapeshifted) would attack in and prepared a counter to survive

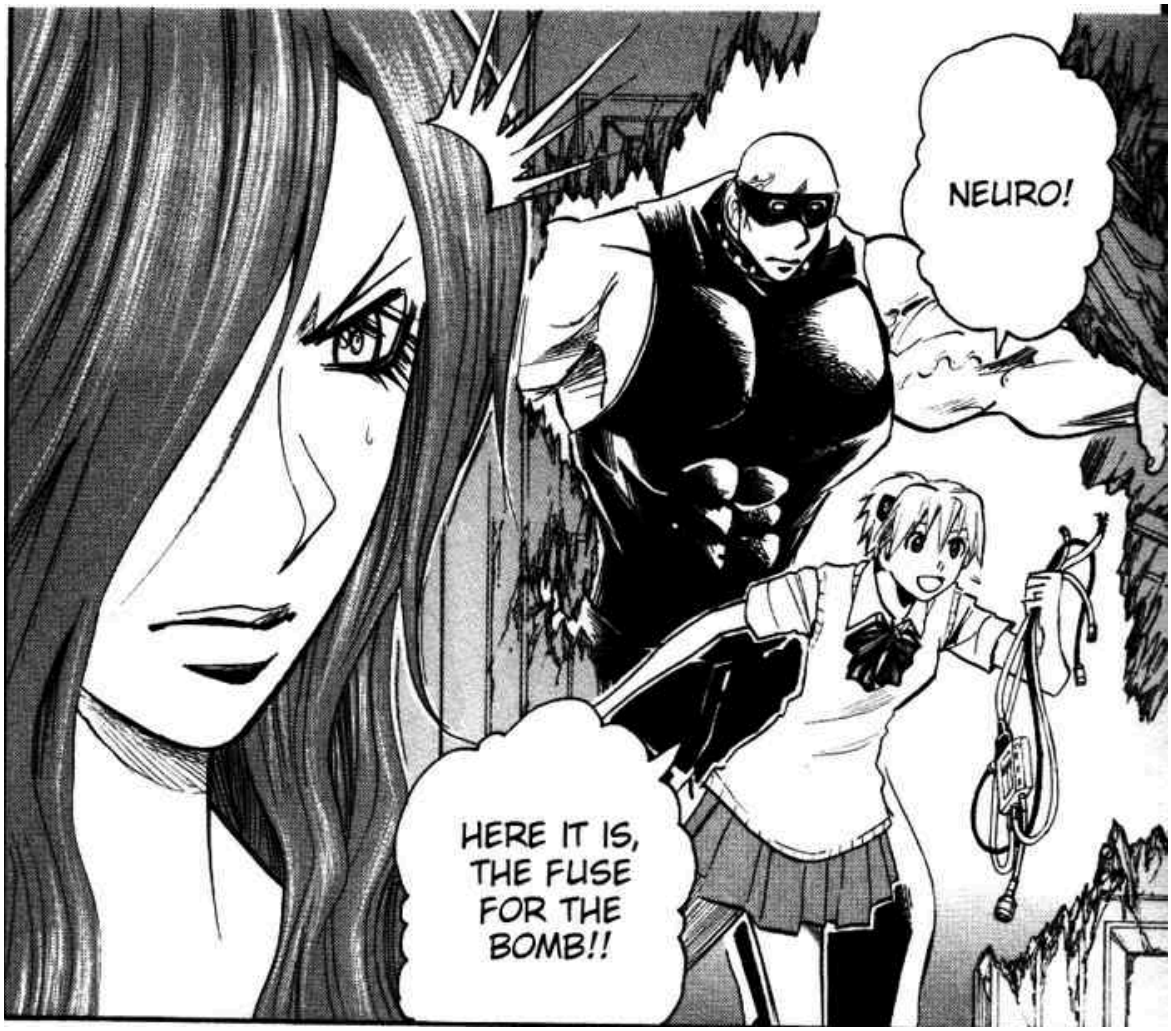

.....?
...I EXPECTED IT

I WAS ALWAYS BREAKING THROUGH A TYPE OF CODE OR PASSWORD
BUT THAT WAS A TWO-DIMENSIONAL THING INSIDE THE PROGRAM

MUCH LESS RAISE A HAND WHEN THERE IS ONLY A SINGLE CHANCE

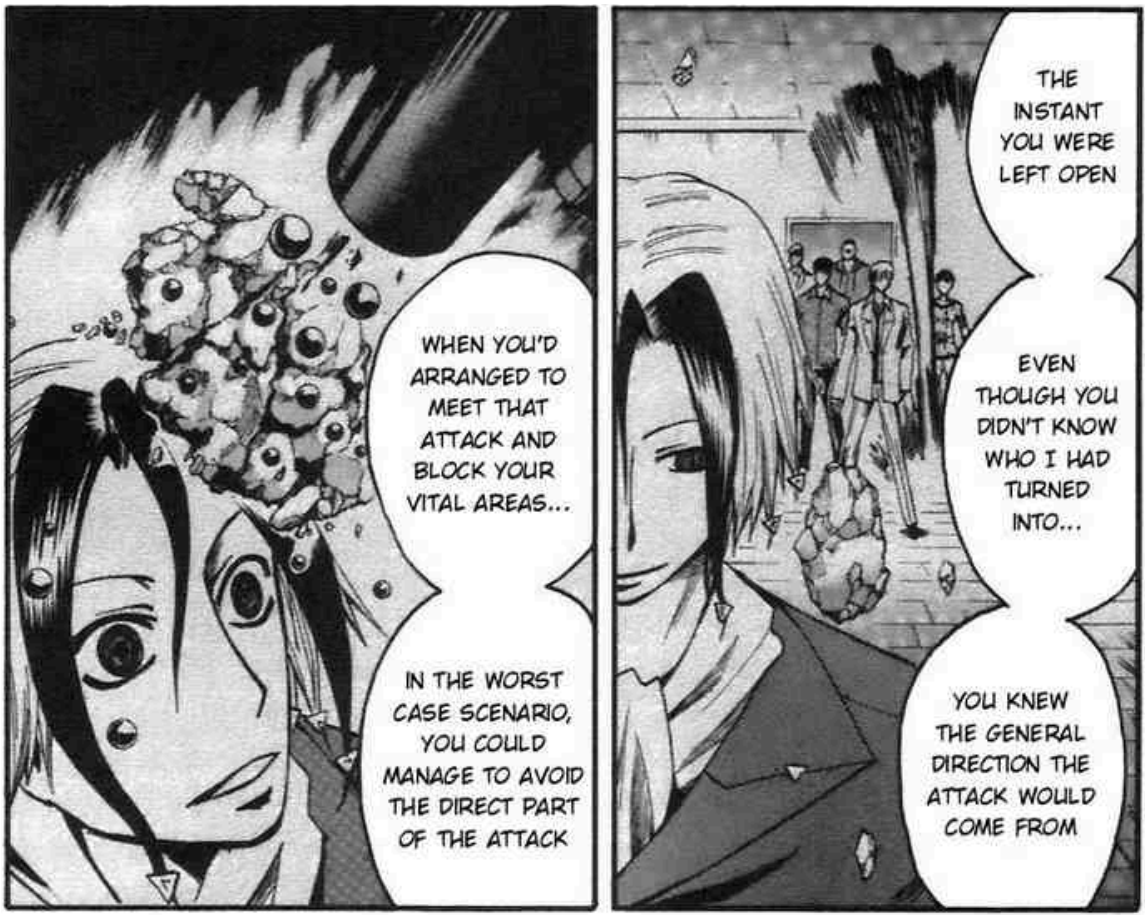

Sending her ahead to diffuse the bomb

Anticipating the enemy self-destructing when in a losing position

Anticipated and avoided a direct hit by X

Planning:

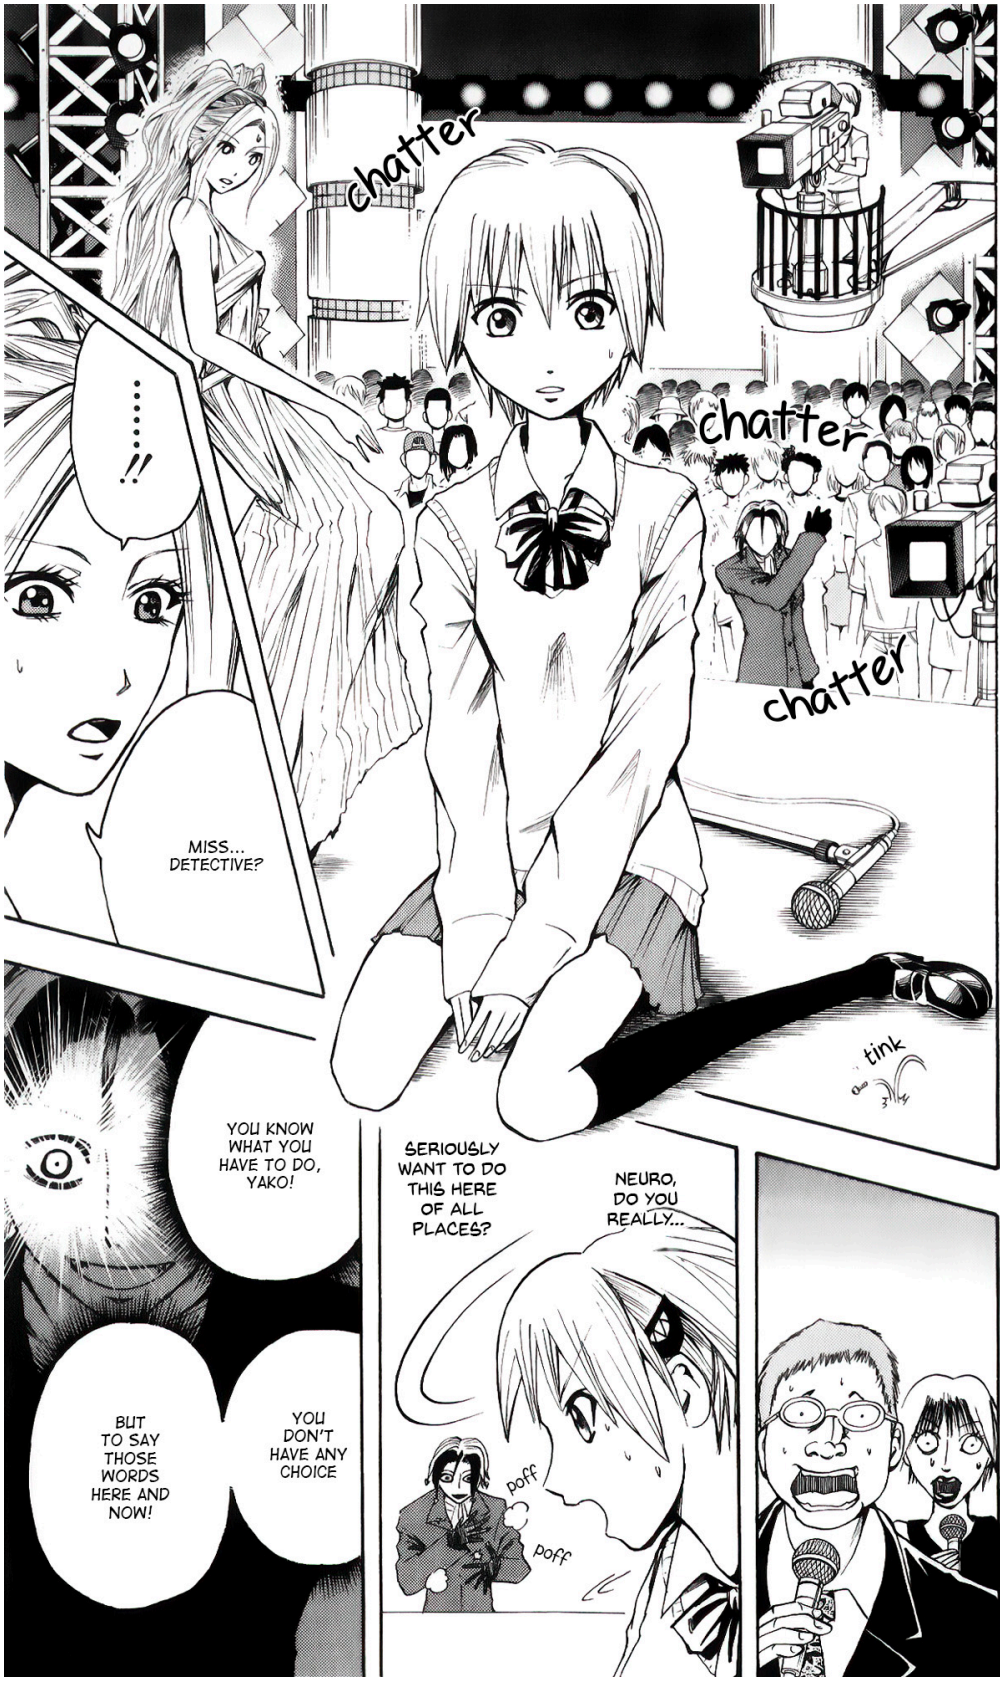

There are quite a lot, however I'll just show the main/strongest points he's shown

- Once he had his client (an idol superstar) bring him his case, he immediately knew how to use it to his advantage and planned to make his figurehead a worldwide known detective (to get more cases quickly). Doing so with that timing, he was also able to pressure Yako (his figurehead) to point out the suspect during broadcast despite her lingering doubts
- Purposely fell into a trap in order to get an information network (and was able to get a new "slave" to control the information network)

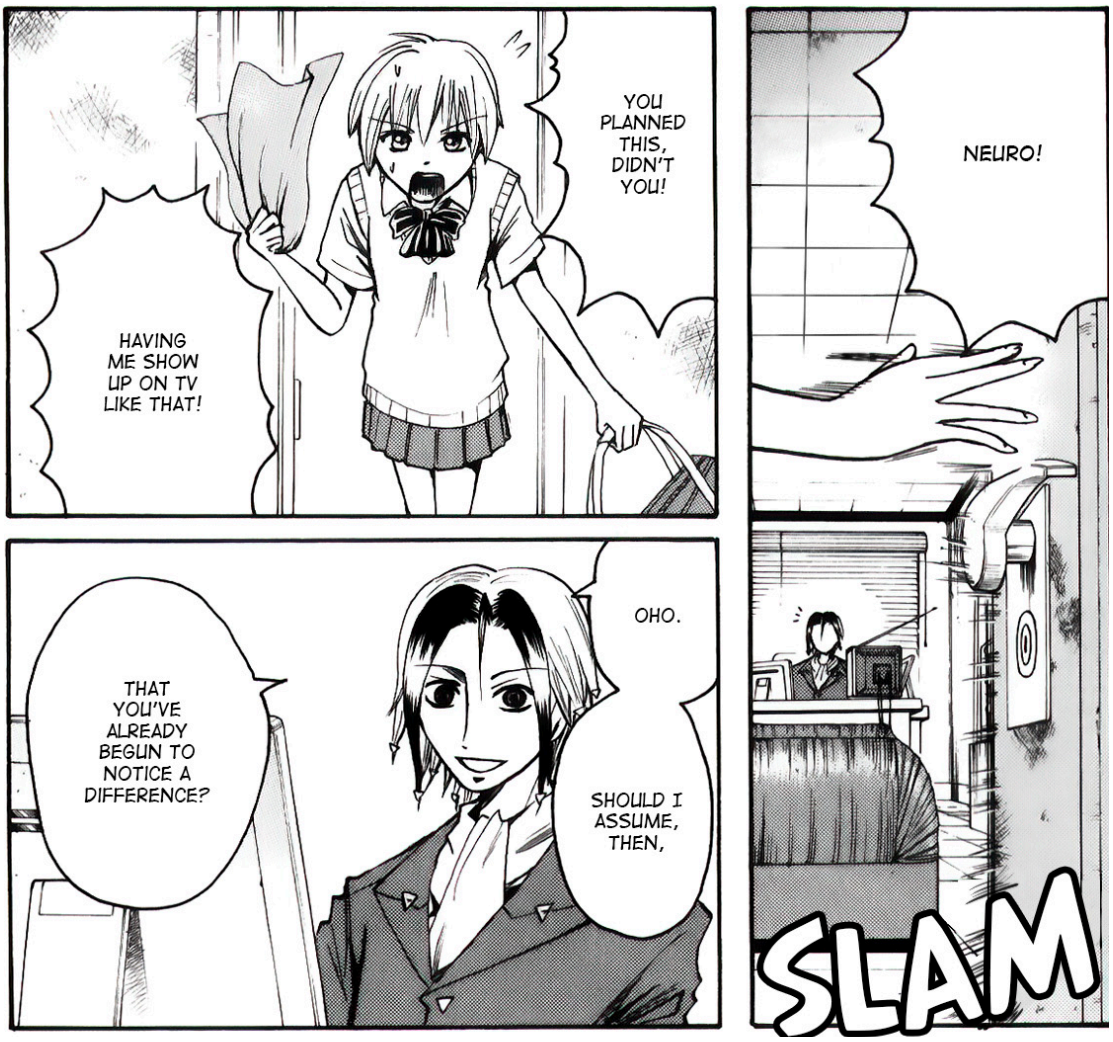

Using these two plans, he was able to create a perfect network to obtain as many/the best puzzles in the most efficient way possible

- In order to take down the "Strongest" finger of the bloodline, developed a plan to have the police raid the undercover company, and set off a bomb to allow the police to search through the and reveal knowledge of the enemy without him having to lift a finger

Neuro’s plan to quickly gain fame

YMAOI

YOU PLANNED THIS, DIDN'T YOU!
HAVING ME SHOW UP ON TV LIKE THAT!
NEURO!
OHO.
THAT YOU'VE ALREADY BEGUN TO NOTICE A DIFFERENCE?
SHOULD I ASSUME, THEN,
SLAM

Neuro “falling” for the trap to get an information network:

WAS REDUCED TO
SEARCHING NATIONWIDE FOR "PUZZLES" AT NO COST TO US
AND THEN, MOCHIZUKI'S RESEARCH INSTITUTION
BEING CONTROLLED BY NEURO THROUGH GODAI

Neuro’s first step (bombing the place while the police was present) of his plan

Neuro’s plan to defeat the strongest finger (member of the New Bloodline) with ease

Strategy:

- Was able to instantly develop a strategy for normal humans to be able to easily take down a member of the “New Bloodline” (Which were superpower-enhanced humans that were said to be able to wipe out most of humanity easily)

Was able to identify....

…and put to use the power of a “New Bloodline” member against them and defeat said member with just 2 injured humans

Reasoning/Deduction:

The reason I'm putting these two categories together is because they go hand in hand with detectives. Since he uses these two so often and in practically all his cases, I'll just show a few instances of them

- Able to quickly reason and find out that the police force was looking at a magic mirror that had enemy forces behind it shooting at them (and counteracted with a flash grenade)
- Was able to reason that someone was the culprit (murderer) purely because they didn't have cigarettes in their ashtray
- Able to see through the false "locked room" and reason as to why and who would benefit from said locked room (to find the culprit)
- Was able to perfectly reason through how a murder that looked almost impossible to be nothing more than an accident worked, and (despite it being his weakest point) was able to perfectly find the motive for the crime as well
- And more… (able to perfectly retrace and follow the criminal's actions/thought process throughout for every crime)

Found this all out while the police was bloodlusted and ready to shoot at them

Finding and deducing the culprit through the lack of cigarettes

Neuro reasoning through the mystery of the locked and finding the culprit

Neuro walking through each step AND the thought process of the murderer

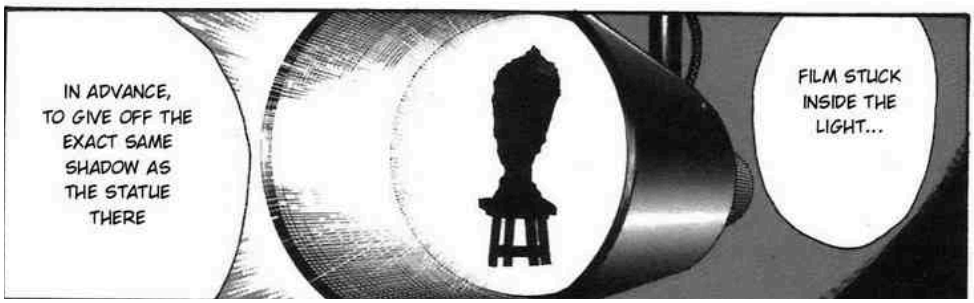

Neuro cornering the culprit with perfect reasoning

Perfect reasoning as to how the crime played out (and how to counteract the erasure of evidence/catching the criminal erasing the evidence in the act)

DEFENSELESS, THE VICTIM WOULD TAKE THE BRUNT OF THE BLOW
EVEN IF THE STATUE FELL, THE SHADOW WOULD NOT...
THE SHADOW IMAGE'S SHADOW IS JUST A LITTLE BIT BIGGER THAN THE ACTUAL SHADOW
TO COVER UP THE MOVEMENT OF THE STATUE
THE POLICE INVESTIGATION WAS AT MIDDAY
THEY WOULDN'T THINK THAT ONE OF THE LIGHTS THAT WAS TURNED OFF...
COULD POSSIBLY HAVE BEEN USED BY THE MURDERER TO PRETEND HIS MURDER WAS AN ACCIDENT
PERHAPS HE WAS AFRAID THE FAMILY WOULD HEAR THE NOISE AND COME RUNNING
HE DID NOT RECOVER THE SHADOW IMAGE FROM THAT PLACE...
AFTER THE POLICE LEFT...
HE WOULD JUST HAVE TO RECOVER IT
HE SIMPLY HAD TO TURN THE LIGHTS OFF, AND LEAVE THAT PLACE

THE TIME OF DEATH WAS MIDNIGHT...
WITHOUT A SINGLE LIGHT
WHY WOULD IT BE NECESSARY FOR THE VICTIM TO GO NEAR AN UNSTABLE STATUE
BUT TEACHER WAS DIFFERENT
INSTEAD, SHE THOUGHT IT WAS STRANGE
THAT NOT EVEN A SINGLE LIGHT WAS TURNED ON
BY THE WAY
I DO NOT KNOW ABOUT THE CASE OF THE ESTEEMED MR. ESHIYA BUT IN THE CASE OF HIS WIFE, TAE, WHAT YOU SAID TO LURE HER INTO STANDING IN THIS PLACE WAS PERHAPS...
AFTER-WARDS
IF YOU THINK THAT FAR, IT BECOMES EASY TO NOTICE HOW THE LIGHT WAS SET UP
THIS EVENING, THE POLICE WERE BURDENED WITH BEING STATIONED HERE TOO
THE IMPATIENT CRIMINAL...
HAD TO REMOVE WHAT HE HAD SET UP BEFORE THE LIGHTS WERE TURNED BACK ON IT WAS A GOOD THING YOU WERE GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY

Even figuring out the criminal's motive (& how he baited the victim)

Info Control:

There's one main part that made me create a page just for this category

- Concealed the fact that he was a demon to so little people he's able to find out who sent what person at him through just that information (Although he does reveal his true identity to more trusted allies later on in the series)

Deducing who sent this assassin at him....

...through his control of the information of his true identity

Knowledge:

- Learned up to a prestigious high school level education (that we know of) within 12 hours of arriving to Earth
- Was able to identify a specific type of tree through the images of its leaves on an old phone
- Also consumes a lot of knowledge in the beginning, although is unspecified as to what exact kind of knowledge he got

Elite level high school math

Found specific tree type through leaves

Neuro gaining knowledge at the beginning of the series

Manipulation/Deception:

- Knew his weakness and in order to split up the final boss and X came up with a lie that Yako (the figurehead) was able to supply him with energy when he tortured her
- Once he solved the case, in order to further solidify his reasoning, he purposely made the police stay to apply pressure to the culprit, then let the police leave to give the culprit an “opening” to remove the evidence, only to catch them in the act
- When “X” was perfectly impersonation Yako (his figurehead) he quickly came up with a way to trick the real “X” into revealing himself

Came up with the lie to split the two

THAT IS BECAUSE...
SO WHY DO I ALWAYS BRING HARM TO HER?
OF COURSE, THIS MAGGOT DOESN'T HAVE A BODY WITH THE ABILITY TO RECOVER MY MAGIC POWER
IT'S MY EVIL WAY OF HAVING FUN!!
くわッ

Neuro pressuring the criminal with the police protection until midnight to catch them

Purposely showing he stole a hair clip from one Yako to start his deception

Step two declaring he knew and prepared to launch a final attack

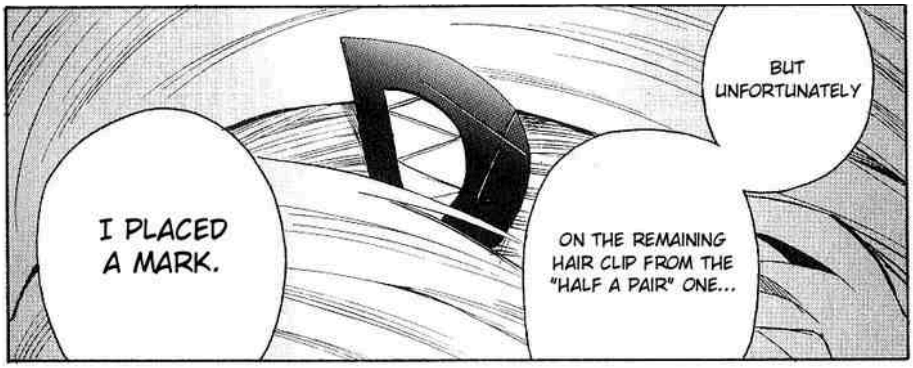

Found X.....

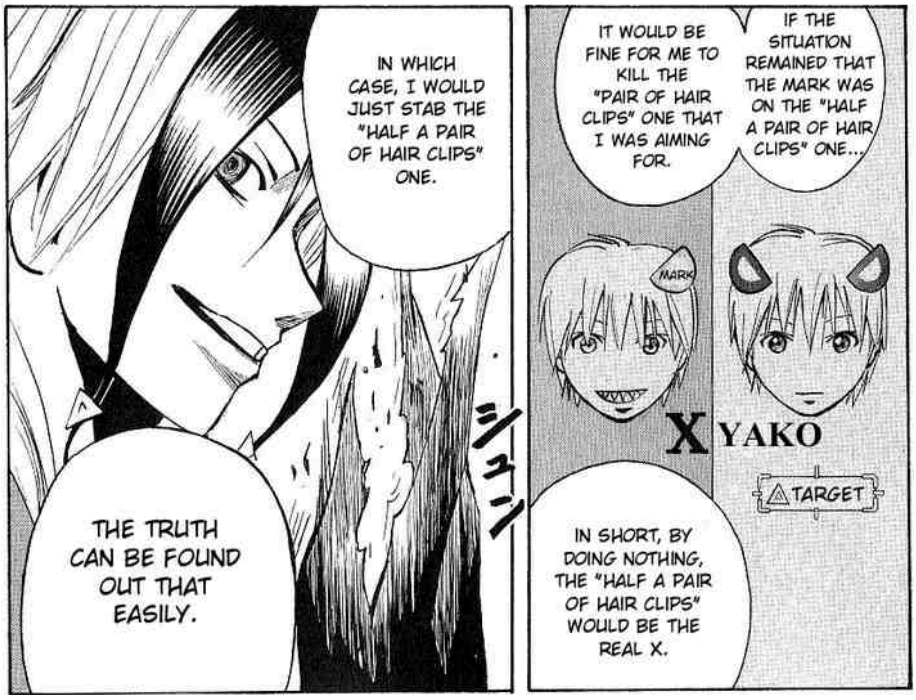

...through the use of....

...a second marking that he purposely concealed to trick “X” into revealing himself

*The reason there's a Misc page is due to him having feats which don't need a whole page for just that one feat or it falling under too many categories

Misc:

- Able to dismantle a car in 5 minutes
- Converted an old phone into a stun gun
- Able to quickly catch a big fish during a fish competition
- Easily breaks past police firewall
- Sets many, many traps for intruders or slaves (in a literal sense)

Final Thoughts:

If you've made it this far, or perhaps came back for a reread, I just want to thank you for taking the time to read through. I formatted the doc in such a way so that people would be able to find his best categories and the appropriate feats for them easier, however obviously some feats that branch off into multiple categories, I just tried to use the best category for them.

Another thing:

This document does not consist of every feat in the manga. The reason for this being that some cases were not as significant/had as good feats and I didn't feel any need to add them in, so if you, the reader of this document, want to do a deep dive analysis and see ALL of Nougami Neuro's feats, I would suggest reading the manga, which will be linked below.

Finally, for those who plan to read the manga:

I will caution, after the HAL arc (ironic antagonist name), the manga moves from "mysteries and outsmarting" to a more "battle shounen". If you want to read purely for the SCD (although I will say the whole manga is just amazing as a whole), I would suggest reading until Chapter 91 (Which marks the end of the HAL arc).

Here is the Mangadex link for those seeking to read the manga to better grasp and judge Nougami Neuro's feats for themselves:
https://mangadex.org/title/0d154989-8804-414a-baaa-3d127bf3f7f2/majin-tantei-nougami-neuro

Once again, thank you for reading this document, and I hope with this you, the reader, are able to understand Nougami Neuro's intellect and include him more within the SCD Community
