Let's begin:

Ayanokoji read 100 million books

Ayanokoji said it in a humorous way, even clarifying that it was a huge lie (Or it could also be a hyperbole to read so many books.):

“Besides, what question couldn’t I answer with my massively impressive brain, filled with the knowledge of a hundred million books? (A huge lie, of course.)

‘Has a girl ever confessed her feelings to you?’ That…wasn’t in the any of the hundred million books I’d read. “
