Haxes related to intelligence :

Becoming a servant gives you two things :

1- Great enchantment for your body and stronger mental capacity.

[Kinaesthetic Control - Bodily Kinae Intelligence - Overall AC]

2- Whenever a servant is summoned they get an immediate knowledge of the current era to help them survive there.

{Epic of Remnant : Shinjuku}

[Section 1 in The Game] - [Chapter 2.1 in The Manga]

From a distance, Moriarty saw Ritsuka falling from the sky a few hundreds meters above the ground and he immediately decided to save him and calculate the distance and location of his fall and he successfully saved him without getting him injured and landed safely.

Standing in front of Rider of Shinjuku [Hessien Lobo] who is a very strong Avenger class servant, Moriarty didn't show any sign of fear while even being injured and while trying to protect Fujimaru.

[Section 4 in The Game] - [Chapter 5.4 in The Manga]

Moriarty was capable of accurately counting for 12 hours straight without a watch and a sleep while he made his way to the Shinjuku station.

[Mental Fortitude]
—----------
[Section 4 in The Game] - [Chapter 5.4 in The Manga]

Moriarty accurately deduced Saber's true identity as [Artoria Alter(Female King Arthur)] in a matter of seconds after their reunion, how :
- By just looking at her he was sure that her class is Saber [Note : There is 7 main classes for servants(Now there are 15 for some reason)]
Saber = a user of a sword [Mostly Knights or Samurai]
Lancer = a user of a spear [Any Spear User(Mostly)]
Archer = a user of a bow or a long range weapon [Robin Hood's likes]
Caster = someone that focuses on magic a lot [Witches and Magus]
Rider = someone with an ability of high traveling speed or at least someone who has an animal to ride on Assassin = self explanatory
Berserker = a monster that destroys mostly everything if it is under mad enchantment

- Then he explained that by just looking at her he knows that there is something abnormal in her age [Note : Servants should be summoned in their prime] then why is she so young he asked, he deduced that her golden day(Prime) was when she stopped aging.

- However, there are only a few servants in history that left a remarkable achievement in a young age, he excluded Jeanne d'arc since Artoria's swordsmanship as a knight doesn't apply with Jeanne, with this alone he deduced that she was a male and not a female.

- By analyzing her behaviour earlier, she seemed to be cold and majestic like a king, moreover she earlier called her weapon the "Holy Sword" which is also called in the west as "Excalibur" which gives her an eternal youth.

- Putting all of these together, he deduced that she is a famous knight, more like… the king of knights "Arthur Pendragon"

- The semi-last problem is the fact she is a woman, he assumed that she wore male clothes to fool others, or she used a certain spell to change her gender, which explains her personality as a king.

- Lastly, what is her real name if she is a woman and why is she an alter?... from our history king Arthur's real name was [Artorius], which means she will change her name to something like [Artoria], as for her alter state [Quick Note : The Alter state of servant is when a servant turns his whole existence to something opposite of what he/she was in the past], he explained that the only ones that could survive in this singularity are the evil people, which means that she was summoned as an alter to survive in this singularity.

[Chapter 9 in The Manga](It wasn't clearly explained in the game)

After using speculation, Moriarty realized the identity of Rider of Shinjuku as Hessien Lobo and came up with the plan of how to take down Hessien Lobo by using Fujimaru and Jeanne as a fishing baits, because he realized that he Lobo goes after humans flesh instead of servants, he quickly told Artoria to erase her presence and he will lower his defense for Fujimaru so that Lobo opens a little weakness and in the right timing… Artoria will be capable of taking advantage of that to kill him or injure at least, the plan succeeded in injuring Lobo but sadly he got away before they finished him.

[Section 6 in The Game] - [Chapter 9 in The Manga]

Moriarty started explaining how he knew the rider’s identity,

Then he said, according to a book written by a man named Seton, this animal is a devilish beast who actually existed in our history who was a monster that was so clever people thought he was a messenger of the devil, the king of the wolves who hated humans ever since they killed his wife Blanca… Its name is The Wolf King Lobo.

Moriarty was yet again capable of identifying the true name of a servant by their appearance using his reasoning skills and great knowledge about history and stories.

After opening the body of one of the Coloturas[A robot], Moriarty decided to plant a bomb inside it after manipulating its system to start working on a remote control and then send it between the armies of the Coloturas so that they can kill the armies using the bomb, which succeeded in sparring a great amount of time, and then went fight face to face with the Berserker of Shinjuku.[Note : he did it for several Coloturas]

[Section 9-10 in The Game] - [Chapter 18.3-19 in The Manga]

By intuition, Moriarty predicted that Hassan(A new servant) was actually another servant in disguise using a certain magic spell, that's why he left a message(A little paper) in Fujimaru's clothes while pretending to be drunk, the paper context was "Don't worry you won't die, I sent help to come and save you, I will explain everything later" which appeared later to be the help from Edmond Dantes(Sherlock Holmes in disguise) because Moriarty knew that Edmond will come to help him(Fujimaru) once he is in danger, turns out later (Explained by Holmes) that Moriarty wanted Fujimaru to get kidnapped so that he can meet with the mastermind [Another Moriarty(I will explain that later)]

[The Plan to Kill Assassin of Shinjuku]

Next course of action to solve the singularity is to get rid of Assassin of Shinjuku, after getting information that Assassin is making a big party that will have a lot of guests where Assassin will try to rob all the guests in the middle of the party, therefore they decided to put a plan to make him drop his guard and kill him, the plan went like this :
- Artoria & Jeanne & Fujimaru(Disguised as Female to trick Assassin) will enter the party in a separate room from Holmes & Moriarty to reduce the suspicion of being in a team with a plan, this way Assassin will think he can kill Artoria and Jeanne by himself.

- After that, Jeanne will start to burn the place to make all the guests go out reducing the number of the people that Assassin would try to disguise as, and Holmes & Moriarty will help people get out the place faster while memorizing their faces to know who left and stayed.

- Now, since Assassin was disguising as Artoria herself, the main team will go face to face with him to do as much damage to him as possible, after the fight Assassin ordered his soldiers to shoot at the main team where he disguised as one of the soldiers himself to trick Artoria and the team.

- Now, comes the purpose of making Fujimaru disguise as a female where he stood in front of the soldiers and took off his disguise which made Assassin drop his guard for a moment letting Artoria slash his chest and giving him a big injury.

WHAT THE HELL ARE YOU DO-
THE MOMENT THE ASSASSIN OF SHINJUKU WILL LET DOWN HIS GUARD IS...
SPSHH...

- And finally comes the reason of why they split the whole team into 2 groups[Main = Jeanne & Artoria & Fujimaru / Secondary = Holmes & Moriarty], after Assassin ran away, Moriarty and Holmes who were outside of the building checked the crowds who were running in all directions and between all the people they immediately know which one of them was Assassin even tho he was disguising and they shot him leading to his death and the success of the plan.

[Section 14 in the Game] - [Yet to be drawn in the manga]

Moriarty is capable of reading the thoughts of animals using a technique called “Animal Whispering” that he said he got from training to understand animals.

While the term "animal whisperer" is often used in popular culture, the scientific basis for this type of communication is not definitively proven. Some believe that animal whisperers utilize intuition, empathy, and observation to understand animal behavior and build strong connections with them.

How animal whisperers might connect with animals:

Empathy and Intuition:

Animal whisperers are believed to be able to connect with animals on an emotional level, understanding their feelings and needs without relying solely on verbal communication.

Observational Skills:

They pay close attention to an animal's body language, vocalizations, and other behaviors to gain insights into their thoughts and feelings.

Building Trust:

By understanding an animal's needs and communicating effectively, animal whisperers aim to build a strong bond of trust and mutual respect.

Important points to consider:

No Scientific Proof:

While many people believe in animal whisperers and their abilities, there is no scientific evidence to support the claim of telepathic communication with animals.

[Section 14 in The Game] - [Yet to be drawn in the manga]

Using Artoria’s dog -Cavall II- they decided to put a trap to stop Hessien Lobo from moving for a minute so that they could kill him, they realized that -Cavall II- looks a lot like Hessien Lobo’s wife Blanca, and in our history and exactly in the book that was written by Mr Seton that witnessed Hessien Lobo in real life, it was stated that they used a similar wolf resembling Hessien’s wife to trap Hessien and they successfully killed him after Hessien believed the wolf(Dog) was his wife even tho he was driven by hatred and couldn't think correctly.

In Fate, Moriarty and Holmes used -Cavall II- as Blanca's copy since he looked the same as her, where they lured Hessien to Cavall's location using Artoria Alter as a Bait to follow and the plan turned out to be successful since the moment Hessien saw Cavall he immediately stopped leaving a lot of holes to attack him and with that they successfully fatally injured him leading to his slow death.

[Disguise - Misdirection]
—----------
[Section 17-18 in The Game]

[Moriarty's Plan to Outsmart Holmes]

Turns out that in the end that everything was staged by Moriarty to outsmart Holmes,
Explanation :
Fused with the Phantom, the Freeshooter, by Baal, Moriarty manifested himself as an Archer instead of his standard Caster. Seeking to thwart Sherlock Holmes, Moriarty formed an alliance with Baal, later known as the Phantom Demon Alliance. They plan to transform an asteroid into a magic bullet with the Freeshooter's powers, becoming possible only with its enhancement through the fusion with Moriarty. However, since crashing an asteroid into the planet wouldn’t be enough to destroy the planet, they decide to construct a tower to act as a barrel to shoot the asteroid into the planet’s core to destroy it. But in order to guarantee the asteroid is loaded into the barrel, Baal and Moriarty will turn it into the Freeshooter’s seventh shot, said to kill an existence important to the shooter. To achieve this part, Moriarty devised to turn Ritsuka into said important existence, which Baal begrudgingly agreed with. Recalling Sherlock never goes full force unless against him, Moriarty erases his own memories, and created a good personality for himself to trick his enemies. He did the same with Baal's memories, turning him into "Evil Moriarty". The two would go their separate ways, believing themselves to be enemies while instinctively following their plan.

And as we saw from the good Moriarty actions, he truly believed that he was good without realizing the plan he had made to defeat Holmes by siding with him.

Later, once Chaldea and good Moriarty was able to defeat evil Moriarty, Bael was finally freed from being Moriarty and with that he regained his memories and good Moriarty got fused with evil Moriarty without anyone noticing until Bael noted that they have lost where Moriarty pierced through Holmes chest and absorbed him as a new source of energy, with this Moriarty declared himself as the winner against Holmes and he explained the whole plan.

He also explained very important note, the meteor that he planned to use to the destroy the city is considered as the devil’s seventh bullet which never hits the right target and hit someone precious to the user, therefore Moriarty used the time where he became good to turn Ritsuka into a precious someone to him while his evil version aims to use the seventh bullet at the city, but since it is the seventh bullet it will 100% hit the place where Ritsuka is (Gladly the meteor got destroyed mid-air and Ritsuka survived).

[Every Statement About Him]

[In his personal skills], it was stated that he has a tremendous charisma, owned not by one who manages a state, but only by one who is at the top of an evil organization. With Moriarty's evil Charisma at the Rank of A, it is even feasible for him to control not just the United Kingdom, but the whole world from the shadows.

[Overall SQ]

[Artoria(Alter)] stated that every action he takes comes with deceit.

[Overall Deception]

[Sherlock Holmes] stated that if Moriarty were to become a detective he would have succeeded, saying he could play detective all day without a problem, he also said in the manga that Moriarty has a caliber of Insight that he could use.
