Gonen Doc by; Shin

Again one of the underrated characters as I deem them as that; Gonen the founder of Vehizoma and who had defeated Baku with ease from the past.

He surely deserves a proper interpretation of a doc, listing every feat he did.

Hopefully with this document it may clear misconceptions especially he's seen as another 'featless fodder' character when it's completely oxymoronic of all, it's genuinely disgusting.

Firstly let's begin by explaining what he did in Usogui;

Note off quickly that Vehizoma has the most influence in Usogui Vehizoma>Kakerou and the others which is getting led by Gonen having the most influence in the entire manga,
Influence

His 'proper' very first appearance as a character is within chapter 539 Plan A Page 7

We see Hal walking towards a room with the kakerou members, mainly naming Sako.

Within the room we see 7 men surrounding Gonen with as much aura as he can. The most notable member would be Abi khan. I'll be explaining what this person has contributed to Gonen later on. Page 8

The best interpretation for this is Gonen prepared these men beforehand as a safety measure just in case knowing and calculating the risks of what would happen in the meeting as we know; He can further deduce these two premises;

1. Each Kakerou member is no joke in a physical battle.
2. Every interaction may cause this much chaos, most notably the TOK game.

Within this premise Gonen deduces these many risks and formulates a contingency just in case for these upcoming events.
Planning Aim, Decision Making, Critical Thinking, Preparation, Risk Calculation, Planning Formulation, Deductions, Planning Contingency, Strategic Thinking

Hal enters the room with the Kakerou members and presents himself as someone who'd question the room; Gonen takes note of this and observes Hal the moment he was in the room.
Observation, Cold Reading, Decision Making, Critical Thinking, Preparation, Emotional Engagement, Emotional Understanding

Hal then asked Gonen to affirm him as the founder of the Vehizoma; which Gonen affirms this idea,

Sako notes off that this 'person' Gonen has the same appearance as Baku and his physical ability is no joke; which we can infer that a kakerou member was able to identify Gonen as a huge threat; Page 9
Threats, Aura, Gaslighting

Gonen then see throughs that Hal is having skepticism about him and his judgment is off, he then decides to call out for this said and motion of the room and calls out that this isn't a mere act or anything;
Observation, Cold Reading. Tactics, Decision Making

Gonen then gives multiple insights how his hobbies, habits has changed
Decision Making, Thinking, Critical Thinking, Insights, Emotional Engagement, Emotional Understanding

Hal then notes he has been observing Gonen and his heart rate stems from, 60, 75 to 90... about going to 100. Page 10

He calls out how this 'form' looking like Baku is a mere facade which Gonen counters by saying his observation about Hal the moment he was in the room; He laughs at his remark, and says it's your ears that can do echolocation as an ability a unique ability that can read people; and as Abi just revealed; Planning Aim, Tactical Analysis, Observation, Insight

Gonen has been giving insights about Hal having echolocation or some unique ability just now with Abi Khan and everything what Gonen said was absolutely true given on his preparation and insight he just gave by observing; Observation, Insight, Reasoning, Decision Making, Critical Thinking, Analysis, Emotional Engagement, Emotional Understanding

That everything thus far he did is merely a test to figured it out completely that Hal has this ability; Page 11
Planning Aim, Insight

Hal was shocked to hear this and had gave such a terrified reaction he later gets less composed due to; Fear inducement

Gonen and his quick wit of composing himself shocked Hal and Sako due to the fact he can control his heart at once as Hal was using echolocation to analyze Gonens' heartbeat; Composure, Emotional Management, Fear inducement, Direct Manipulation, Emotional Understanding

As Sako states to himself inside his mind, Gonen had done it purposely to scare off both Hal and Sako in the scene and Sako believing that Gonen has not been faking such a scene or nor a facade; Gaslighting, Manipulation, Emotional Understanding

Gonen then misdirects the tactic he used to fear induce both; Sako, Hal and shrugs it off by saying what he has analyzed about Hal, his hearing; echolocation ability and further deduces that both Gonen and Hal shouldn't play a game like that can use echolocation as an ability for Hal to take advantage off; Observation, Insight, Reasoning, Decision Making, Critical Thinking, Analysis, Emotional Engagement, Emotional Understanding, Emotional Management, Misdirection, Tactics, Planning Aim

And Sako stating he's sharper than Baku; Page 12

Hal notes that he can't possibly defeat Gonen by this interaction alone.

And Abi stating they would again have another body; that would be Hal.

While Gonen just observes as the scene ends, Observation
Page 13

We know Gonen defeated Baku;

I should explain first who Abi Khan and his role in taking part when explaining Gonen I'll be explaining that once it's needed;

At chapter 518 it's heavily hinted by the prince bee book written by the Kakerou member which implies the story of Hal and Baku;

Got bored. I'll finish this someday.

Afterword

Did this in 10 minutes or less LOL. That's out of the way. I enjoyed analyzing this motherfucker to kill time and get rid of my boredom.
